

Dear reader,

Thank you for your interest in supporting QC Pride's Quad Cities Unity Pride Week in 2019. We are working hard to bring the Quad Cities area a fun week of inclusive activities for members of the LGBTQ+ community and their allies to enjoy together in celebration of diversity and self-expression. Our purpose is to help build a society in which no one has to hide their true selves because they fear judgement, ridicule, and harm. It is our sincerest hope that you also want to work towards this vision. Allow us to describe more about Quad Cities Unity Pride Week.

Kicking off Unity Pride Week will be a three-day street fest co-hosted by Quad Cities Pride Festivals (formerly QC Fall Pride) from May 31 to June 2. The rest of the week will consist of various activities such as a family day, a movie showing at the Putnam Museum, and a dinner cruise on the Celebration Belle. All this leads up to the second annual bi-state Quad Cities Unity Pride Parade.

This week of events is all about the power of positivity and visibility. We believe that this will lead to a more open-minded and accepting community that supports one another for who they are.

We cannot do this without the support of our volunteers, partners, and sponsors. If you share our vision of an accepting and safe society for all people, then please consider supporting us in our endeavors this year as one of our sponsors. Our sponsors get the unique opportunity to support both a local non-profit organization and the LGBTQ+ community as a whole. When the Quad Cities sees your name in tandem with our events, residents and visitors will know that you do not tolerate hate and that you proudly stand by your neighbors.

With this, we humbly ask you or your organization for whatever support you can provide. We graciously accept contributions made in monetary funds or in-kind donations of products, venues, or services. No contribution is too small – we greatly appreciate any form of support for QC Pride and our work. If you are unable to assist us now, then we ask that you keep us in your thoughts and encourage others to attend Quad Cities Unity Pride Week.

Several opportunities to support Unity Pride Week are available with our six sponsor levels. If you are interested in sponsoring a specific event, please let us know. Thank you for your time. We sincerely look forward to working with you!

Best Wishes,

QC Pride Inc. Board of Directors
