Monthly Membership Terms and Conditions

- Everything listed in these terms and conditions applies to all parties listed on the membership
- This membership is a "DUES paying" membership, which commences upon signing of this agreement and continues indefinitely until canceled.
- By agreeing to these Terms and Conditions I understand that I have or am obligated to pay an initiation fee as listed above and that under no circumstances are any portion of this amount refundable.
- Beginning on the 1st of each month, monthly dues as listed above (plus tax) will be paid to Summit Everett by electronic funds transfer (EFT).
- Each monthly payment is made in full and is non-refundable.
- Freeze/Cancellation can be done through your member portal by managing your membership.

NON-PAYMENT

Failed Payments: In the event that a membership payment is declined or otherwise fails, the member will be considered in breach of this agreement. Summit Everett reserves the right to immediately suspend access to the facility until payment is resolved.

Grace Period: If payment is successfully made within five (5) days of the original billing date, the membership will remain active and no additional fees will be assessed.

Late Payments: If payment is not received within five (5) days of the billing date, a $25 declined EFT fee will be charged to the member's account. Membership privileges will be suspended until all outstanding amounts, including the declined EFT fee, are paid in full. After five (5) days, all outstanding balances will be invoiced and must be paid within three days of invoice reception.

Delinquent Accounts: If payment remains outstanding for more than twenty (20) days from the original billing date, the account will be referred to a collections agency.

At that time, the member will be responsible for:

- The full unpaid membership dues,
- $25 declined EFT fee
- $50 collections fee

Ongoing Billing Obligations: Membership dues are not canceled due to non-payment or suspension. Dues will continue to accrue until the account is brought current or formally canceled in accordance with the Cancellation Policy.

Right to Terminate: Summit Everett reserves the right to terminate any membership for continued non-payment or repeated failed transactions.

CANCELLATION & REFUNDS

Member-Initiated Cancellation: Members may cancel their membership at any time through their member portal at least 5 days prior to the next billing date. Membership will remain active through the paid period. No prorated refunds are provided for partial months.

Outstanding Balances: Cancellation does not relieve the member of any outstanding financial obligations. All past-due membership fees, late fees, declined EFT fees, or collections fees must be paid in full at the time of cancellation.

Refunds: Membership dues, fees, and charges are non-refundable except where required by law.

Summit Everett-Initiated Cancellation: Summit Everett reserves the right to cancel or not renew any membership for reasons including, but not limited to, repeated non-payment, violation of gym rules, or conduct deemed inappropriate. In such cases, the member remains responsible for any outstanding financial obligations on the account.

MEMBERSHIP FREEZES

- Membership freezes are $8/month and will last up to 6 months, and can be done at any time.
- At the end of the 6 month term the membership will be restarted at the normal billing rate.
- Memberships must run for 2 months before they can be frozen.
- Membership freeze must be completed at least 5 days prior to the time of billing.
- All freeze requests must be done through the member portal.
