

Lambourne Closed**

We have been constantly checking the water quality and unfortunately the Committee has taken the decision to close Lambourne site until conditions improve, we desperately need significant rainfall and the Dissolved Oxygen levels to improve.

I'm sure members will understand that this decision has not been easy but the welfare of the fish must come first.

We will keep members updated

ECAS Committee