

Empowering Experience at Women's Career Carnival 2023

Grateful and Inspired: A Transformative Encounter for Harmony Haven Girls

Date: November 25, 2023

Venue: North South University Auditorium

Harmony Haven Girls, a vital component of the empowering initiative Rise To Independence, recently embarked on a remarkable journey at the Women's Career Carnival 2023. This transformative event, meticulously organized by the formidable collaboration of Heroes For All and iSocial, unfolded at the prestigious North South University on November 25, 2023.

The carnival, a confluence of intellect and inspiration, provided the Harmony Haven Girls with an immersive experience through a series of engaging workshops and enlightening lectures. Noteworthy speakers, including accomplished women from Bangladesh, international experts, and esteemed personalities from NSU, graced the occasion, leaving an indelible mark on the minds of our girls.

The event's success owes much to the tireless efforts of Dr. Rehnuma Karim, the visionary Founder & CEO of Heroes For All. Her gracious invitation extended to the Harmony Haven Girls reflects the commitment of Heroes For All to foster empowerment and enlightenment. Dr. Karim's vision and leadership have undoubtedly played a pivotal role in orchestrating an event of such magnitude.

The girls had the privilege of delving into the wisdom shared by Bangladesh's accomplished women, absorbing insights from foreign speakers, and interacting with distinguished personalities from North South University. The amalgamation of diverse perspectives and experiences has undeniably broadened their horizons.

The gratitude resonating from Harmony Haven Girls towards Dr. Rehnuma Karim and the entire team behind Heroes For All is immense. This invaluable opportunity has not only left them grateful but also profoundly inspired. The seeds of knowledge sown at the Women's Career Carnival 2023 are bound to germinate into a garden of possibilities, shaping the trajectories of these young minds towards exceptionally bright futures.

In conclusion, the Harmony Haven Girls express their deepest appreciation for the Women's Career Carnival 2023 and extend their heartfelt thanks to Heroes For All, iSocial, and North South University for creating a platform that not only celebrates women's achievements but also empowers the rising generation. This experience stands as a testament to the transformative power of education and mentorship in shaping the leaders of tomorrow.
