

Ekko Lyrics

Heaven in Disguise

I looked down at the water
And the water looked up at me
I started crying
And the river swallowed my tears
Naked and weary
I'd been hiding from my fears
All that time chasing
Wasting my young years

Blinded by the veil of familiarity
Sleepwalking sinner
Sink your fangs into
The apple of my eye

'Cause the angels sang of paradise
But when I look around I see
Heaven in disguise
Yeah the angels sang of paradise
But when I look around I see
Heaven in disguise
I see
Heaven in disguise

Easy now tiger
It's all in your mind
And there's no need to Slay the serpentine
'Cause every morning I
I say my prayers to Eve

Yeah the angels sang of paradise
But when I look around I see
Heaven in disguise
Oh the angels sang of paradise
But when I look around I see
Heaven in disguise
I see
Heaven, heaven

Nothing more, nothing less
This is all that we get
Until death do us part
This is all that we are

Nothing more, nothing less
This is all that we get
Until death do us part
This is all that we are

Heaven in disguise
I see
Heaven in disguise
I see
Heaven in disguise
I see
Heaven, heaven

The Overgrown Path

I walk the overgrown path
Despite myself
I do it for my better half

'Cause the more I learn
The less I know
This I know
And unless they don't answer
They don't know the answers

No end in sight
A question everlasting
But if it calms my mind
I guess I'll stop asking why

Don't let the times you were hurt
Define what you are worth
We accept the life we think we deserve
Don't let the times you were hurt
Define what you are worth
We accept the life we think we deserve, deserve

And you deserve the world

And unless they don't answer
Don't know

How to walk the overgrown path

Lighthouse

You learned to cut yourself up
Into bite-sized portions
Praised for when you bow your head
In sweet devotion
'Cause everybody loves a thornless rose
But that's not how they grow

Easy on the eye
You hide behind your smile
Lost amidst the storm
Guiding others to the shore

Take me to your lighthouse
But you can turn the lights out
No more words to say
No more parts to play
Covered in their doubts
Turn you inside out
That's a lot of blame
You don't have to hide away
You don't have to hide, no

You put yourself on a leash
Follow and repeat
A distant memory
Of who you used to be

Slowly turning translucent
The embodied illusion

Take me to your lighthouse
But you can turn the lights out
No more words to say
No more parts to play
Turn you inside out
That's a lot of blame
You don't have to hide away
You don't have to hide, no

'Cause those who matter won't mind
And those who mind don't matter
I know you're terrified
But just repeat this pattern
Those who matter won't mind
And those who mind don't matter

I know you're terrified
Those who matter won't mind
And those who mind don't matter

So take me to your lighthouse
But you can turn the lights out
Covered in their doubts
That's a lot of blame
You don't have to hide away

Take me to your lighthouse
But you can turn the lights out
No more words to say
No more parts to play
Turn you inside out
That's a lot of blame
You don't have to hide away
You don't have to hide, no

Take me to your lighthouse
But you can turn the lights out
Covered in their doubts
That's a lot of blame
You don't have to hide away
You don't have to hide, no

Bad Days

Your eyes got used to the dark
Over time
My heart it opens and I
Wanna see what you'll find

Hard to know how to be patient
But you try
The blind leading the blind
Side by side

Oh my love, they're calling us

But bad days never felt this good before
When I'm down you join me on the floor

My skin grew used to your touch
It melts me inside
And though we're falling apart
I feel so alive

'Cause bad days never felt this good before
When I'm down you join me on the floor
Bad days never felt this good before
When I'm down you join me on the floor

And I don't have to hide it
And I don't have to run
And I don't have to play nice
And I don't have to give him reasons why
I cry

'Cause bad days never felt this good before
When I'm down you join me on the floor
Bad days never felt this good before
When I'm down you join me on the floor

Narcissus

I Used to Fly

Praise poisoned the soil
Severed the roots
To songs that will go unheard
Flightless bird

Cold, cold is the wind
Barren the land
She's fertile and ready
And the sun can't help
But follow her

As you pass me by
Watch you catch the light
And i was wondering if you might

Safe, safer than sound
Pass on the torch
Now she gets to walk through these cavernous grounds
Congrats

Oh their love will keep her warm

But just for a while They'll move on

As you pass me by
And i was wondering if you might
Remind me of the times

(I used to fly)

Love in decline
Passing me by
Caught in the light
I used to fly
Unleash the fire
Never deny
Your own desire
You'll pay the price

Love in decline
I used to fly
Unleash the fire
Never deny
Your own desire
You'll pay the price

Love in decline
Caught in the lie
I used to fly

Anthill

My mind is an anthill
It creeps and it crawls
Behind every question
An answer is born

So I won't ask for more time
I wouldn't dare to call anybody mine
Everything I know I learned between the lines
Adding flowers to the shrine
Adding flowers to the shrine

This word is a beehive

It's sweet but it stings
So easy to fly
With blood on our wings
So I won't ask for more time
I wouldn't dare to call anybody mine
Everything I know I learned between the lines

The queen is dead
Long live the colonies
Off with our heads
The body needs time to heal

Long live the colonies
Long live the colonies
Long live the colonies
Long live the
Long live the colonies
Long live the colonies
Long live the colonies

So all I ask for is a room without a door
A path to follow
Friends that remember to call
Everything I know I learned between the lines

Dive in

Dive into the water
Let it erase all my thoughts
And carry me
Every conversation
Seems to lead back to this place
And after all
Still feel the darkness draw me down

But then light comes with all its promise
Of clear skies and summer solstice
Blue bells ring in the distance
And I just can't help but listen
Soon as you think you've made it
Life comes with all its changes
Unsullied dreams have faded
Left yearning for some way to make amends

Before lights end

Longing for catharsis
You won't find in man-made magic Though I've tried
Every dawn keeps breaking
On the roads that I've forsaken
After all
I've seen enough now take me home

But then light comes with all its promise
Soon as you think you've made it
Life comes with all its changes

Dive into the water
And carry me

Hinter den Wolken

Hinter den Wolken da schlummert die Nacht
Tanz mit dem Mond bis die Sonne erwacht
Flieder und Edelweiß, Nelken und Mohn
Recht eure Hände zum goldenen Thron
Purpurne Träume zerrinnen im Bach
Öffnet die Blüten und zeigt eure Pracht
