

Leeches I

I was walking through this state I found didn't know devotion drowns out doubt stop waiting for more for someone else to open your doors fallen stars light up the boulevard

take my body to the shooting grounds

I was nurturing the smallest peace when you kissed me under apple trees stop asking for more for me to open up your doors

'cause I'll bleed
if you want me to I'll bleed

pray for the leeches

Caterpillar

I'm sweet like roses
soft like cotton
you're rough and heartless
our future's rotten

feed me flowers
accompany the silent killer no more hours spent hiding from the caterpillar

'cause my love is kind
shut all the blinds
you don't need space you don't need time
don't try to flee
embrace quarantine
you don't need friends
you just need me

kill your darlings cause they don't understand you like I do come bathe in liquidised truth

sacrifice makes me swoon
feed me lice
watch me bloom

'cause I'm sweet like roses

Snail I

show me the way
describe the route
'cause I'd gladly walk
a mile or two get closer to get to know you

they say good things take time
for a while now
they say where rivers run deep
the harvest is sweet

slow and steady wins the race

kissed by the rain with a heart full of hope avoidance of pain is a slippery slope

you spend all your time waiting for clues wrapped up in me I'm the comfort you choose

my snail in white armour the gentlest of boys you remind me of my father and it leaves me no choice

Snail II

think of me when you see a snail remember how long it took
us to get here

mind your words
mind your steps around me

Mosquito

Crow

gave your heart up to the nightingale and so begins another star-cross'd lovers tale

I don't want to hide this anymore let them know it's you that I adore black crow kill the jealous moon black crow morning comes too soon gentle creature let me hear you sing darkness holds us as we spread our wings never was a story of more woe than that of the nightingale and the

how far must we fall before they hear us call

ooh ooh

mourning comes mourning comes too soon

Moth

there's a method to my madness I bottle up and sell my sadness there's a madness to your methods you idolise and buy my efforts

do you need me to listen
do you need me to fill the silence
do you need me

I'm like a moth drawn to your flame the more you give the more I take we rage and pillage in loves name
but I don't wanna play your games anymore

nurturing is in your nature you cradle up and feed the danger so, tell me will you be my lover are you not afraid to suffer

you're like a moth drawn to my pain you only want what you can't tame

Spider

let me wrap my spidery legs around you strings attached I'm so glad that I found you cut my legs I wanna be just like you fly on the wall I see you staring at the window

what have we become
fly on the wall
do you remember us at all

I'd like to call out my final witness
point out the man
tell us who did this

and what have we become you'd rather free-fall than hold on

Worms

may worms come for you may worms comfort you may they mayday

Leeches II

I never asked for your love
so how can you tell me I'm taking too much that it's never enough

'cause were your hands
forced into mine
you're bound
to lie
next to me

don't take love's name in vain
there are two sides to pain and two sides stand to gain the martyr shines in his red robe the damned cries for his lamb that's oh so cold

but were your hands

I take your body to the shooting grounds

Vermin

we are two sides of the same coin conceived by the same loins walls that were built can be broken

words that were said
can be unspoken

each the villain
in the others eyes
each the hero
of their own kind

obsessed with pain
but searching for pleasure surrounded by good but searching for better

what if we welcome the vermin
close down our minds
open the curtains
let in the light
welcome the vermin

Vær min

jeg lytter til bølger ser fjære og flo
vugger i vindens tro
stormen kan komme
jeg venter i ro

å ta meg med deg
syng meg hav sang
stillhet vær min venn

å ta meg med deg
dans med vinden
uro vær min venn

vi går motstanden i møte
legger fra og setter seil

jeg vil leve
glede og smerte vær min venn

vi trekker inn årer lar bølgen oss ro
tåken kan komme og svelge oss to vi vugger i vindens tro

å ta meg med deg

å ta meg med deg

jeg vil leve
