These kiddos enjoyed pulling peanuts from a field. Then they saw some of the previous crop getting loaded out of the warehouse, headed to the sheller. They looked at peanut drying trailers. Then they visited with the mechanics and got an up-close look at an Amadas peanut combine. Got a group weight on the scale, 1140 pounds. Followed by a look at a new John Deere tractor. Toured the office, and Florida Department of Agriculture grading room. And had a conference meeting 🥰

These #Florida4H kids had the best time this afternoon at Sanchez Farms 🌱🥜
Thanks to Gilchrist Fourth Gilchrist County Students for active and engaged participation in the #peanutcamp

Florida Peanut Federation is thankful for partnership with Florida 4-H and UF Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences to develop these types of programs that create lifelong learners

Specialized Extension Agents and Peanut Research staff from UF IFAS visited with peanut growers in every area of Levy County, FL, today. We saw the field that welcomes the first planted peanuts in the state each year, and thus becomes the first field of #FloridaPeanuts harvested every year. We discussed the costs and management decisions of farming operations. We reviewed stressed plants and identified the pressures on them and methods to alleviate. Florida Peanut Federation sponsored lunch for the group that dedicated their time to the all-day tour. The farmers were gracious with their time and showcasing their fields. They were kind and eager to receive comments from the experts. I'm very thankful to have enjoyed the day alongside and encourage this 'reverse field day' for years to come.

Education begins with a nourished mind and a full stomach! 🍌🍌🍌 As students across Florida gear up for another exciting school year, let's remember that hunger should never be a barrier to learning. Shockingly, 1 in 7 children in our state faces food insecurity, affecting their focus and potential. Join our food banks in fighting child hunger and ensuring every young mind has the fuel they need to thrive inside and outside the classroom. The annual Peanut Field Day was held at NFREC-SV on a Tuesday morning. There are lots of UF and industry representatives. The tours and talks were informative and appreciated.

FPF maintains a Social Media presence.

Any time we are asked to donate to a meal, rather than provide a monetary sponsorship, we make what is becoming our signature dessert with PB cookies, chocolate, cheesecake filling, and cool whip. It is so so good!!

The Hamilton County Field Day was outstanding K Wynn always does an excellent job creating a feature event with delicious meal, stops at trail fields, great presenters, and excellent fellowship.,

HURRICANE IDALIA

FPF RESPONSE & SUPPORT

HURRICANE IDALIA RECOVERY RESOURCES FOR AG. PRODUCERS

Following Hurricane Idalia, federal, state, and local resources are available to help producers recover. Please see below for important information about filing claims, applying for loans or other financial assistance, and how to get in touch with the necessary agencies to begin the process. Our teams are standing by to help.

FEMA

FEMA operates several mobile sites to help residents file FEMA claims:

Dixie Dixie Co. Public Library
Lafayette Mayo Community Center
Hamilton 1153 NW US Hwy 91
Madison Career Source North FL
Suwannee Ag. Coliseum

The sites operate daily 8am-6pm and FEMA reps. are available to help file claims and answer questions. Rep. Cammack's staff is also available to assist (see reverse for info).

USDA FSA & FDACS

The FSA has made disaster assistance applications available online at bit.ly/5a3m3m3a.

Additionally, Gov. DeSantis has activated the Florida Small Business Emergency Bridge Loan Program to provide short-term, zero-interest working capital loans. To learn more and apply, visit floridabusiness.org/FBLL.

Rep. Cammack's staff is also available to assist (see reverse for info).

SUWANNEE RIVER WATER MANAGEMENT DISTRICT

The Suwannee River Water Management District provides reimbursement rates for cost-share services and equipment. Learn more at mysuwanneeriver.com or call (356) 647-3158.

SBA

The Small Business Admin. operates several sites to help businesses:

Levy Cedar Key Community Center (open 9/6-9/12 only, 10am-6pm)
Suwannee - Suwannee County Chamber of Commerce (open 9/6 until announced closure TBD)

The Suwannee site operates 7am-7pm daily and SBA reps. are available to help file claims. Rep. Cammack's staff is also available to assist (see reverse for info).

STEPS TO TAKE NOW:

- Document all damage to property, livestock, and equipment. Be sure to take photos and notes with dates and times as you're able.
- Make a list of immediate needs, including power, feed or water, worker housing, etc. Please alert the State Ag. Response Team (SART) with FDACS immediately at flart.org.
- View the reverse of this sheet for information about FEMA, SBA, and other agencies' mobile sites to speak with a representative in-person. If you need assistance filing claims or sorting through paperwork.

HURRICANE IDALIA RECOVERY RESOURCES FOR AG. PRODUCERS

UF IFAS

Complete the damage and losses assessment to share information about the impact of Hurricane Idalia on your farm, ranch, or aquaculture operation.

Participation in the survey is voluntary and will allow researchers to understand more about the storm's impact on Florida's products.
