for a light snack discussion on the art of selling art, books and fine craft with guidelines and information for publicity and the art of collecting for the future. The event will feature fine artists, photographers, craftsmen and writers who are members of the gallery.

Hosted by Wayne Drumheller distinguished photojournalist and bestselling North Carolina-Virginia author of collectible photography-art books. For the America-North Carolina 250 Celebration Project, he has self-funded and published a collectible series of “Wayne’s Amazing Apple Recipe Book & The American Revolution” in the 13 original colonies that became the first 15 United States.
