

Alamance Photographers Club Exhibit 2025

The Theme: A Detailed Look at the World Around Us

Participants are encouraged to turn their lenses toward the intricate, the subtle, and the easily overlooked aspects of their environment. Whether it's shimmering wings of a dragonfly, the textured bark of an oak, the pattern of city lights at dusk, or everyday objects that form the backdrop of our routines, this show calls for photographers to reveal the extraordinary in the ordinary.

Think about the details that catch your eye as you move through the world-the play of light on water, the geometry of a leaf's veins, the weathered hands of a craftsman, or the vibrant colors of a city street mural.

Each image should invite the viewers to pause, reflect, and perhaps see their surroundings through a freshly inspired perspective.
