SALUTEM PUNCTUS TRIANGULI

Dear Elizabeth,

We communicate in order to provide you with the opportunity (again offered!) to head off and diffuse legal, constitutional and social challenges that are about to overwhelm you, your position and your national sovereignty. We offer help and practical advice on how to mitigate unnecessary trauma and suffering which is likely to ensue following imminent and inevitable societal and climatic change.

We do not seek to offer you or your family preferential treatment; however we do offer a way in which you can salvage your dignity, self-respect and maybe your lives. This communication is presented in two parts. Firstly, the outline in very basic format of the constitutional, legal and parliamentary based melt-down that is now beneath you – problems which you and your repressive machinery of state are fast sinking into AND the second part is the outline offering of a series of solutions to problems and distress that you and your family will be facing in near space/time nexi. The topics are several and so we list them now:

PART ONE

- (A) The United Kingdom's "illegal" involvement in a phoney war against the people of Iraq. A war that was nothing more than an "Oil-Grab" partly initiated by George W. Bush and father.
- (B) Your Prime Minister's complicity, collusion and desirous participation in this war contrary to the advice of the Attorney General Lord Goldsmith, his (Blair) subsequent lying to parliament and the people of the United Kingdom. And his subversion of justice and due process in conducting his own exoneration via (to date) 3 Judicial Reviews.
- (C) Accusations against you surrounding the fact that the United Kingdom could not go to war without the express consent of the Privy Council(PC) and the "Queen in council" – er, you!
- (D) Your failure, whether through ignorance, disinterest, naiveté (or collusion) to refuse to sign the Privy Council documents allowing the General Staff to take your Armed Forces officers to war. You as Commander in Chief had a duty of care above all others to verify the facts.

(E) The citing of all 544 <> members of the Privy Council as co-accused in the permitting of this “illegal” war which was not fought in defence of national borders of Commonwealth territory or in protection of British Commonwealth citizenry. It was, with 20/20 vision, just what it always seemed to be – and the nation knew it – a simple unprovoked invasion of another Sovereign State.

THE FACTS

These are as follows:-

(A) The Bush Administration (Team B as they like to call themselves) with which you are intimately connected and indeed genealogically tied, have stolen not one but two U.S. elections using lies, deceit, theft and the Diebold electronic voter registration system. Al Gore lost out via voter fraud and vote rigging, whilst John Kerry, Bush’s cousin (removed), had the election simply stolen off him.

The move against Iraq by George Dubb’ya to valiantly rescue the Iraqi people rings somewhat hollow coming from a war-monger that within his first few months of becoming President had sabre-rattled the Chinese and had bombed Baghdad. His true motives were simply the lust for oil for as both yourself and we are aware this “black-gold” will be the commodity par excellence after the coming pole-shift and this and no other reason was the “Why?” for the invasion of Iraq. Both Bush Snr. (knighted by you) and Bush Jnr. along with their power crazed elite sought to make this land-grab using tax payers money and the lives of the US Military as their enforcers and thereafter, bailiffs.

The outfall from this is that Bush’s Puppet Master(s) has said “Enough!” and is currently bringing this “runaway train” to a halt. The Bush Administration is decapitated. Bush, now a spent force resorting to both cocaine and the bottle has been unofficially relieved of his title “Commander in Chief” by the United States military top-brass and all nuclear launch authorisations and codes withdrawn from him. Unfortunately for you this storm from across the Atlantic is not only heading this way, your way, but it in fact arrived here on the 31st January 2003.

(B) Tony Blair, on his controllers say so, was given the instruction to follow Bush’s play. He has not only played along as willing accomplice in this “rape of the Middle East” but has gotten his nose much too deeply into the trough. Though 3 Judicial Reviews, carefully convened by those at the highest level, have white-washed his lies, the pack still has the scent and Blair will find no rest now ’til the end of his days. His involvement in this illegal war is obvious to all of your citizenry and is soon set to Re-emerge in the full glare of media attention; this time though, with facts not hereto revealed he will become a sitting duck. The cracks are there for all to see and regardless of whether or not he is still officially in office * he will be pursued as a war criminal.

Tony Blair has stated that he did not decide to go to war against Iraq until 24 hours prior to the event and then only following the final Commons vote in parliament at your Palace of Westminster. However, leaked documents prove that in the Whitehouse meeting of January 31st 2003, honourable Tony agreed to go along with the Bush decision to Invade Iraq regardless of the outcome regarding the United Nations Resolution.

One of the most serious accusations that can be made against a Prime Minister is that he knowingly misled parliament. Such a charge would be even graver if it involved hiding from M.P's and the nation – that he was also acting according to a secret agreement with a foreign power- the United States of America. What if as a result of this conspiracy to war the country was so taken and servicemen lost their lives? To date the number stands at 101 and as many of these through accident and friendly fire as to battle itself.

Tony Blair sought perfunctory legal advice we are told from Lord Goldsmith (PC) the Attorney General and ignored the advice given. Lord Falconer (PC), aptly named, persuaded him, in addition to later tone down his (Goldsmith's) dove-ish advice. All three individuals need carpeting on this action alone. Nevertheless, Blair went to war illegally as far as the world, the U.N., Europe and Britain were concerned. He played his hand and he lost. But what could have fuelled such arrogance and confidence on both sides of the Atlantic that Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD) would be found in Iraq? with even Hans Blix the Chief U.N. Inspector saying that he found it quite incredible that the Bush Administration could have "100% certainty as to the existence of these weapons but zero per cent knowledge as to where they were". What did our two heroes know that no one else did? Well, let us Reveal a little known secret:-

Bush, Powell, Cheney, Rumsfeld and others in this farce had what they considered a fool-proof plan. They knew all along that there were no Weapons of Mass Destruction and so to protect themselves from that "stuff that hits the fan" blowing back on them, they had in theatre, ready to plant, their own WMD and material to implicate Saddam. They fed the U.N. and hence the world lies from day one – everything was a fiction, a confection apart from their determination to war! They thought their plan to be fool-proof but they failed to realise that it was not God-Proof. They planned to place the smoking gun in Saddam's hand, "liberate Iraq" and come out as "kings and saviours of the world". They failed to account for the many warnings they were given, and refused to believe, that higher dimensional beings, who have the vested interests of mankind at heart, would step up to the crease to help protect the innocent. Until the Bush Administration finally accepted defeat on the "planting deal" they had attempted and failed over one hundred times. They will never succeed.

 (Please note: The PM is NOT constitutionally allowed to appoint his successor, Gordon Brown or anyone else for that matter as the election of the PM must be via parliamentary procedure and via the Royal Prerogative and this is your discretion. To permit otherwise would be to take from you the ultimate protection the monarch can offer its people and would attach you to a future obligation to accept someone who may prove to be unsuitable and vilified in the public's eye. Remember Eden, R.A.Butler, Macmillan fiasco in 1957?)*

(C and D) Following on from the above, it is a constitutional fact that the United Kingdom and its Armed Forces can only be taken to war (or sue for peace) via the Privy Council with the "Queen in Council" – er, you. Therefore, in order for your Commanders to move even so much as a paper clip in the direction of war there had to be a Privy Council document with your Seal of State and signature giving authority to go to war. (Remember Suez 1956/57?).

Why, many in this isle are beginning to ask, did you fail to invoke the Royal Prerogative – absolutely and unequivocally tailor-made for such an occasion? Your simple refusal to sign the order(s) for war would have certainly stopped Blair in his tracks and probably Bush too. So knowing there was no U.N. resolution, why did you not (or maybe you did?) consult the Lord Chancellor, Lord Falconer and the Attorney General Lord Goldsmith? Hmmm! Blair was a loose cannon – he should have been stopped.

(E) One of the many complaints and frustrations that the British electorate level at this fiction of parliamentary democracy is the incessantly seeming “non-accountability of any one for anything at any level”. The parliamentarians form the government. The government then enforces legislation throughout its term only to bamboozle the electorate when it is asked for an explanation. This non accountability of parliamentarians who make decisions when in government only to have their successors hold up their hands when brought to account claiming either “It wasn’t me personally” or “It was the fault of the previous government,” creates an apathy and sense of hopelessness in the nation second to none. Chasing them is like chasing a ghost.

However, this deliberately frustrating control elite ploy has an Achilles heel. It can be attacked quite successfully via the Privy Council. Appointment to this body is for life and the title Right Honourable is bestowed. The councillors have then to take an Oath of Personal Allegiance to you and here’s the rub. Even if a government is voted out of office the principle despots have invariably been entitled by you for life. Their sheer act of remaining alive therefore creates an accountability throughout the entirety of your reign and of your successor (if there was going to be one, but there’s not) Ipso facto as they are still accountable to you and as you are still accountable to the people then through the obvious thread of chronology, title and constitutional law and the fact that you collect taxes from the people cements your reciprocal part in this contract.

Hence, we are preparing to cite as co-accused all 544<> members of your Privy Council as co-conspirators in an action against Messrs Blair, Brown, Straw, Prescott, Hoon etc for war crimes and misleading the citizens of the United Kingdom and undermining its sovereignty. Answers are needed and are going to be given. In all probability we are writing to you about those things of which you know all too well – for this we make no apology. This sparse detail is for the benefit of those who may read this document in future time should you fail to accept the initiative we offer you in this now moment.

You may have genuinely wanted this war – if not then you need to explain what went wrong. However, as we and you are aware, impending massive global tectonic and climatic earth changes are fast bearing down upon this planet. You know this: both Bush and Blair know this but as of yet there has not been as much as a squeak from any of you to help and inform the common man – Earth’s Humanity. The implication of your collective and individual inaction we shall address in Part Two of this communication entitled Operation Firewall. For now though allow us to précis your predicament.

1. An illegal American/British “land grab” war against another sovereign state Iraq.
2. False premise and reasons for war given to parliament and the people.

3. Fall back positions of Bush/Blair in the “Pact to Plant” WMD and thus allowing themselves to come out of the deception in true Templar Style as saviours of the world.
4. A gross miscalculation of the Higher Spiritual Plane’s commitment and support for the protection of the common man and the masses from false political dramas.
5. Your accountability for not applying a sanction to Blair via the Royal Prerogative, in order to stop this war-monger in his tracks – unless by implication you were too, fully supportive of this illegal war. Either way you have broken your Annunaki contrived method of ensnaring the public in useless mind-fogging detail and ritual. We now provide the lens by which ALL will begin to see this repression for what it really is.
6. Your continued failure to announce the approach of the 12th planet of your solar system, the planet Nibiru, whilst continuing to prepare your own exit strategies and allowing populations to “Perish in Place”.

You are now encouraged to consult with your inner self, your inner family, possibly even MJ12. You need to personally consider and understand the full implications both in the now moment and karmically for the response you will make. This document may be a god-send.

Consider well for we help you best plan your exit strategies and the dissolution of the monarchy. The House of Windsor is no more – a fossil no longer of use even to look at in a case. Relinquish it now before you are ripped from it. Act now while your decisions are still your own – you do not have as much time as you have been led to believe.

PART TWO

OPERATION FIREWALL

OPERATION FIREWALL OFFERED TO YOU VIA THE ALPHA AND OMEGA ORDER MELCHIZEDEK UNDER THE PROTOCOLS LAID DOWN BY THE COUNCIL OF SATURN FOR THIS SYSTEM OF WORLDS.

WE MAKE THIS OFFER OF HELP AND ASSISTANCE UNDER THE TEACHINGS OF THE SACRED LAW OF ONE AND THE GOLDEN RULE (PRE – SERVE LIFE FIRST) SO THAT YOU AND YOUR LOVED ONES CAN MAKE A GRACEFUL AND DIGNIFIED EXIT FROM PUBLIC LIFE AND TO HELP YOU MAINTAIN SOME DIVINE PRIDE AND MAYBE YOUR HEADS.

WE COMMUNICATE NOW;

We send this news to you Elizabeth, in such fashion, for a number of reasons the prime one being to help you head-off legal, constitutional and social challenges which are about to overwhelm your tenure. We offer help and assistance as per the Teachings of The Sacred Law of One on ways to mitigate unnecessary trauma and suffering that are to ensue as a result of your and your ancestors' actions and inactions – this, your KARMA, is about to play itself out before your very eyes – ready or not. We do not have all of your answers at present but within current probability/possibility space /time vortices, those we do have are as good as you could hope for.

Taking even a cursory glance at and appreciation of your ancestry and genealogical charts will tend to show that on many occasions the “Cause of Death” has often been as a result of unpopularity, so to speak! How to stay popular when there's 6.48 billion of them and only one of you? How to stay popular when approximately 3.8 billion souls on the planet have to survive on around $1 per day? How to stay popular when your equine feed bill is many fold this sum. Staying popular is no mean feat and is about to become meaner!

Surprise it to say that both you and your family's time is drawing to a close as preferential players in this role of deceit and control that are the systemic hall-mark of all elitist service to self “king of the Hill “ regimes. Your time is drawing to a close as the planet prepares to pass into 4th Density in the 2012 – 2022 AD space/time corridor. The planet will be fetched with some considerable inconvenience due to the soul-density and general planetary dis-harmony atypical for 3rd Density planets such as yours.

Nearer to home for you though, your 64 million subjects will not be subject to anything or anyone too much longer after discovering that they have been consistently and systematically lied to and treated as fools by those who seek and profess to care for them, when and as they begin to find out the true causes of Global Warming and they also find out the associated exit strategies that the world's elite, obviously you included, have been preparing for themselves. This parasitic (though your kind would probably call it symbiotic) fear enforced, Annunaki contrived relationship that you all have with your taxpayer/slaves can often lead to the “Haves” being shortened by a head when the truth sets them free or the status quo is otherwise upset. This we wish to avoid for all and not just for you.

As you are fully well aware, massive global tectonic and climatic Earth changes are about to overwhelm you, your country and the world's socio-economic systems. These changes are being felt even now and are being visited upon you by the inbound 12th Planet Nibiru within your solar system, on its 3657 year "sling-shot" orbit. The Earth certainly is warming up but not for the reasons given in the media, or from the given reasons of Co² emissions – for it is warming from within. Volcanic activity and seas which warm from the bottom can hardly be as a result of an atmospheric gas!

To date both the British (lead) and the American (follower) regimes have categorically refused to reveal details to the masses and indigenous populations the truth of this phenomenon. The Puppet Master, MJ12, your Service-to-Self accomplices the Zeta Grey, the Futczhi (Rigelians), Sirian Annunaki, Dracos and Zephelieum, Rutilia and a few more have tried with moderate success to control the game to their ends until now. However, surprises are now the order of the day. The secret or covert government of this planet has seen fit simply to save themselves at "ALL COST" and are gambling their exit strategies prior to any major pole-shift activity, whilst allowing the masses to simply "Perish in Place".

Any hopes that you had of succeeding in this measure can only be likened to that of a small child believing he can fly to the moon on Peter Pan wings. This having been said, you may still be resting under the illusion (misguided) that you and your inner circle will be evacuated off-planet to await the shift at some distance and in safety - then to return to rule over the chaos. In this you are grossly mistaken on two counts:-

- 1) You will be deceived by those offering you such services and
- 2) Any such evacuation attempt will be halted either at launch or in orbit. Accept the warnings! -The realities of ignore-ance and previous refusal to comply can be evidenced by your Challenger and Columbia shuttle wreckage and the now acceptance of these warnings by the grounding of the shuttle missions by NASA – they had no choice. No launches of equipment or personnel will be allowed.
- 3) Finally, after any major dimensional shift short of obtaining head-transplants or permanent shape-shifting you will easily be identifiable in the After-times by those you sought to cheat.

SOLUTION

We the Guardians, The Council of Worlds, The Universal Great White Brotherhood and the Alpha and Omega Order of Melchizedek have a series of actions and announcements we are now setting in place and initiate and we can either do this in consultation and with help from you or not. With is always preferable hence this communication leading, we hope, to a dialogue. Time is short and you can help. We propose a lead out of the truth, but with you as a figure-head initially providing the "disturbing but necessary" media publicity – we will then take up the slack, so to speak. This could/can be your gift to your nation and the world and Charles could well find a meaningful role here especially via his Rosicrucian Tenets. We need to act now and with your co-operation or without it for you do not have as much time as your E.B.E friends have led you to believe.

Operation Firewall will also place a “commoner” between you and the people to act as an interface, a lightning rod if you prefer, to hopefully ensure the difference is made when it is needed.

In conclusion you have been let down, lied to, misled and duped by your own kind and what you would term your closest allies and at every level they have failed you and your future path is showing little difference in this regard. You, your country and your planet, or should we say your subjects’ planet, is in crisis – politically, socially, economically and especially spiritually. The world is now tired, worn out and out of time. The best you have been able to do has failed and then some.

The Universe IS NOT in crisis – you and this planet are.
Do the right thing! Do it Now!

On behalf of the Alpha and Omega Order Melchizedek,

Asher Melchizedek/Peter Smith
