BEST WAYS OF TRAVEL TO THE VENUE AND YOUR DESIGNATED HOTEL

The nearest situated Airport to Leicester is Birmingham International Airport.

Transport to Leicester from Birmingham International Airport is quite straight forward.

On arriving at Birmingham International go to the free mono rail shuttle which will take you to Birmingham International station (approximately 5 minutes duration)

Purchase a train ticket to Birmingham New Street station (this will cost approximately £4 standard travel and will take a maximum of 15 minutes)

At Birmingham New Street Station purchase a ticket for Leicester station (this will cost less than £20 one way standard travel)

When you arrive at Leicester central station there is a taxi cab station in front of the train station which will take you to your designated hotel please ask the taxi driver how much this will cost you to alleviate any confusion of price.

You can pre – book your train tickets through www.buytickets.virgintrains.co.uk

Or www.thetrainline.com/uk you can also purchase your tickets on the day at the station.

Please note flying in to Heathrow or Gatwick Airport London, the transport from these Airports to Leicester is far more expensive.

Hotels.

To book your hotel we suggest you book through www.booking.com/uk or www.trivago.co.uk

We advise you book early to secure your hotel and through the above websites you will get a discounted price rather than booking with the hotel direct and you can also pay on arrival.

Please check out the hotels

Mecure the grand hotel

Holiday inn express

The Hilton

College court

Days inn hotel

With some of these hotels you may need to book a taxi to the venue this again can be quite inexpensive if traveling in a group of 4 people or more.
