Sacred Scripture

In this next Catechism on the work of mercy: praying for the living and the dead, we will talk about offering family prayer for the living and the dead. Family prayer is an essential way for each individual household to be a schoolhouse of love. Prayer is offering God the love language of time and also gifting to him our attention. Some souls in purgatory are there because they did not spend enough time in prayer. Some people living on earth are straying away from the faith because they don't spend enough time in prayer. When we offer our family prayer for the living and the dead, we entrust them to God and offer that gift of our time and attention to God for the.

Please, indulge this challenge. Family prayer is more than grace before meals. Family prayer is where each family makes a gift of their time simply to pray and nothing else. Examples of this are the family rosary, family reading and discussion of Scripture or the family time in Eucharistic Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament. Even if the family gathers together for one minute to say an Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be, that could go a long way to help the living and the dead.

Dear Brothers and sisters in Christ,

As we approach Thanksgiving Day and work to find presents for our loved ones in preparation for the Season of Christmas, we may encounter someone on the road or in a store being inconsiderate of others' safety and/or lacking courtesy for others. I like to keep a little rubber figurine of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in my truck visor to remind me to take the high road. Since Jesus is always considerate and courteous, His love will pour out upon us when we look to him and change our frowns and grimaces to smiles and laughter, if we let him. Let us prepare ourselves to have a Happy Thanksgiving by giving room for the joy of the Lord in our hearts at all times.

In the hearts of JMJ,

Fr Comeaux
