

Sacred Scripture

In this catechism we shall talk about the next precept, "You shall keep the holy days of obligation." These are days which celebrate the most important teachings of the Love of God. Every Sunday being the basic holy day of obligation because every Sunday is both the Sabbath day of rest and a little Paschal (Easter) Sunday. Every Sunday, we rest in the Lord with worship as a community. Every Sunday we celebrate that our Lord Jesus has risen from the dead. The Saturday Vigil mass is actually called the Vigil Mass for Sunday because in the Jewish culture during Jesus' public ministry the day did not begin with sunrise but sunset the previous day.

In the year 2026, the holy days of obligation outside of Sunday mass was and will be: January 1 (Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God), May 29 (Solemnity of the Ascension), August 15 (Solemnity of the Assumption), December 8 (Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception), and December 25 (Solemnity of the Nativity of the Lord). Note that the Solemnity of All Saints on November 1 is not obligatory in 2026 as it falls on a Saturday.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

On Friday we celebrated the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of our Lord Jesus Christ. This Solemnity reminds us of our Lord's love for us. A love that burns in zeal for us, that suffers to reconcile with us and that yearns for deeper and purer communion with each of us. If we only knew how much God loves us, we could scarcely contain that knowledge before our hearts burst with joy. May we all grow in love of Jesus together.
