Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Sacred Scripture: In this catechism, I would like to first say Happy Pasch! Today is the first day of the Paschal season which will extend until the feast of Pentecost on May 24. During the Paschal season, we are called to meditate more on the time of Jesus' life from his Resurrection to his Ascension and into the birthday of the Church when the Holy Spirit came upon Mary and the Apostles at Pentecost. The Paschal season is a season of Joy and Celebration. We celebrate at our worship of mass. We celebrate with our families. We celebrate with the poor in our communities. Jesus did not rise from the dead for us to be miserable and enslaved to our passions. Jesus rose from the dead to break these shackles of misery and enslavement, thereby raising us into a life of joy, peace and love. We cooperate with that by enjoying each other's company, making peace within our families and communities and showing love in action to those we encounter. Happy Pasch everyone!

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Happy Pasch!!! I hope you allow yourselves to be led by the love of God who fills our hearts with joy and peace as we live in the world. Sin robs people and communities of love, peace and joy. We inject it back as we allow ourselves to be led by the love of God. God's love is powerful. God's love is enveloping. God's love can melt the heart of any human no matter how good or evil their actions are. Trust in the power of God's love to inject love, peace and joy into our communities.
