

Sacred Scripture

In this next catechism, I will continue the teaching of joy admits the cross by discussing the denial of pleasure. Pleasure as defined in the English language, is the feeling of happiness, satisfaction or enjoyment derived from experiences that feel good. One could mistakenly think the denial of pleasure is to seek its opposite, namely, pain. However, finding joy admits the cross means seeking pleasure in doing God's will and working with Jesus. We order ourselves to this goal. If we are attached to the desires of our bodies or the good things of the world, then we will not feel good about doing God's will and working with Jesus. It is then that we deny ourselves what feels good, namely the good things of the world, and choose to do God's will. Eventually our bodies will follow as we change our habits. This may take some time, for which, we must be patient with ourselves. Everyone in heaven experiences complete happiness, satisfaction and enjoyment in doing God's will. Their joy is so complete that it cannot be diminished by any evil. So let us take pleasure in doing God's will.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Let me write once again to advise you against another trap of the enemy to destroy families and break them apart. This trap is mocking. Mocking or sarcasm is a form of the sin of anger or malice. It is an act to dishonor the one we are mocking or acting sarcastically toward. Honor and respect is the language of love. This is not to be confused with teasing. If we love someone and want to correct their behavior or beliefs playfully, this is not an act of anger but a gentle act of service. Let us show honor and respect to each other in imitation of the way the three persons of the Most Holy Trinity show honor and respect to each other.

In the hearts of JMJ,
Fr Comeaux
