7th December 2025—SECOND SUNDAY IN ADVENT

Christmas
Bowl

THE CHRISTMAS BOWL IN JORDAN

In Jordan, Hassan (Name changed for safety reasons) was unsure of his future and without opportunity. Through the Christmas Bowl, he joined the Forsa for Youth Project (Forsa means 'opportunity' in Arabic) and trained in hotel management, giving him skills, confidence, and employment.

The Forsa for Youth Project, run by Act for Peace's local partner, the Department of Service to Palestinian Refugees (DSPR), empowers Syrian and Palestinian refugees living in Jordan to rebuild their lives through vocational training, business development, and financial literacy.

At the start of the program, Hassan struggled to identify his passion and career path. With the guidance of the project's dedicated mentors and the involvement of his family Hassan began exploring different career options that matched both his personal interests and local job opportunities.

It was through this process that Hassan discovered something that truly inspired him: a love for hotel management. He realised that this field could open doors to a stable and meaningful future.

The Forsa team arranged for Hassan to complete intensive

AGAIN

...when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the living and the dead...

Collect for the First Sunday of Advent

In the monastic tradition of St. Benedict, the idea that each day, each hour, each moment, the opportunity to "begin again" through the grace and presence of Jesus is central. It is a way of being in the world that allows one to always be learning, growing, and changing. It allows safety for apologies and forgiveness without shame. It allows for fresh starts fuelled by belovedness. In this way, as we start Advent again, we are also experiencing a taste of Christ's coming again.

vocational training through the Vocational Training Corporation, where he learned about hotel operations, room service, and catering. The experience was life-changing. It gave him new confidence, improved his mental well-being, and equipped him with the practical skills needed to enter the workforce.

After successfully completing his training, Hassan was connected to a job at a local restaurant. Today, he works in catering and customer service; proud of how far he has come.

"The Forsa for Youth Project has helped me achieve everything I have today," Hassan says. "I can truly say that I'm happy now."

Through the support of the Christmas Bowl, the Forsa for Youth Project is helping young people like Hassan find direction, purpose, and hope. By providing training, mentoring, and business support, the project empowers Syrian and Palestinian refugees to rebuild their lives and contribute to their communities.

Your gift to the Christmas Bowl helps young people like Hassan build skills, find work, and look to the future with hope.

Peace is more than the absence of conflict - it is the presence of safety, stability, and a sense of belonging. As we reflect this Advent, may we become instruments of God's peace, extending care and hope to those who need it most.
