President's Message

By Ron Carlton

Welcome to a new year of quilting fun. I am very pleased to have been chosen President and hope to live up to all the encouragement I have been given.

I am an early riser and lately I have been taking my first cup of coffee in my sewing room. I have been trying to finish a small quilt that I started five years ago. The technique I am using is English paper piecing, which is all hand sewn. I find it a nice, quiet way to begin the day, and sometimes sneak back to stitch a little more during a coffee break in the afternoon. You might ask why, if this is a small quilt, it is taking five years to finish ... well, you already know the answer!

Whatever technique is your favorite, it is now time to get back to it after your summer vacation in Tahiti, or wherever. And now is the time to get busy on that upcoming holiday quilting! Every year at Christmas I remind myself that I had intended to make gift quilts for those I love, and every year I resolve to do it "next year." It is time to get started.

We have a great line up of programs scheduled this year. Our Board is working hard to engage your mind, your heart, and your enthusiasm.

See you at our Guild meeting on September 17th!

Our next Board Meeting will be at a new venue on Thursday, September 13^h, 6:30 pm., at Sundance Mobile Home Park, 2250 N. Broadway. Members are always welcome and Committee Chairs are encouraged to attend.

Our Next Guild Meeting:

Monday, September 17, 2018

*Gloria Dei Lutheran Church
1087 Country Club Lane
Escondido, CA 92026*

Doors Open: 5:45 pm Meeting Starts: 6:30 pm

September Meeting Program News

By Alice Johnson

Welcome back from your summer activities! I hope you had the chance to do some traveling. Our September speaker is a world traveler who has had some amazing experiences as an ambassador for Days for Girls. Jeana Nash will be sharing her experiences and the mission of this grassroots non-profit movement, which can use your sewing skills to help girls and women worldwide!

Hospitality News/Needs

By Gail McDaniels

Welcome to a new year of NCQA meetings full of quilting activities and yummy refreshments!! As for refreshments, we will follow the traditional Hospitality Schedule where members are divided into groups alphabetically by last name, and each group is then assigned a month. Individuals within each group have the choice of snack they want to bring. Homemade or store bought, sweet or savory, we love the variety! The Guild provides coffee, tea, water, paper goods and utensils.

Watch for reminders in the monthly Sew & Tell, and check the new Directory (when it is distributed) for the full schedule. Until then, members from the 2017-2018 Directory whose last name starts with A or B are scheduled to provide the September meeting snacks:

Mel Alpert
Louise Anselmo
Barbara Berdan
Betty Biggs
Sharon Bitting
Judy Boomer
Romany Bowers
Edie Bradley
Jackie Breitenfeld
Olga Brouwer

Thank you in advance!

"I will not buy any more fabric until I use all of my stash at home,"
said the quilter...
who then laughed, and laughed,
and laughed.

Membership Committee News

By Susan Peters

Welcome back from a fun filled summer of sewing! It's time for NCQA membership renewals and maybe you can entice a friend to join you this year?

Your 2018/2019 membership will include two (2) Guest Passes for up to two (2) people. That way if you give a pass to a lady you meet, she can bring a friend with her to a guild meeting. It's always more fun to share a new experience with a friend, right?

Yes, you do need to fill out a form each year.

Romany Bowers will be at the Membership Table at the September meeting. She's so dedicated to the Guild that she's covering for 2/3rds of the membership team! Yikes - two of us have family commitments on Sept 17th. Please be patient with Romany and Anne; they'll collect your renewal forms and payments so that when I return I'll process everything and have your 2018/2019 membership cards and guest passes waiting for you at the October meeting.

Your Membership Committee,
Susan Peters, Carrie Harrison & Anne Neiger

P.S. Yes, I will bring my gorgeous Hug of Hearts quilt to the October meeting for everyone to see (in case you weren't at the June meeting). - Susan Peters

Another extraordinary wheelchair quilt was completed for donation to our deserving veterans.

The end of the year NCQA pizza party was enjoyed by all!

Our outgoing President, Susan Peters, was presented with a quilt created by NCQA members, in thanks for her two years of service as President of our Guild.

Our beautiful 2018 Opportunity Quilt was featured for ticket sales at Inspirations Quilt Shop during the Southern California Quilters' Run in July.

Sundance Neighborhood Group

By Paula Huntington

At the September 17th Guild meeting, we will Show-n-Tell the results of our recent block exchange...it has been a lot of fun. We are finishing up the Opportunity Quilt for 2019 and are exploring ideas for our next small-group project.

We'd love to have you join us at our monthly meeting, 6:30 pm on the first Wednesday, at the Sundance Mobile Home community room, 2250 North Broadway. For questions, contact Paula Huntington at 760.294.6011.

Security Blankets

By Maureen McClellan

After our summer break, I am looking forward to collecting all of your fleece security blanket and fleece yardage donations. I really appreciate the blankets I received over the last two months from some of our members, as I was still able to make deliveries to Palomar Forensics in July and August.

Thank you so much for your continued support of this worthwhile project. As with all our of our charities, the need remains great. Reminder: each blanket requires 1 2/3 yards, and as always, I will be happy to pick up from you.
