Thank you to the Escondido South Neighborhood Group for creating our 2018 Opportunity Quilt!

President's Message

By Ron Carlton

Since our last meeting, I had the opportunity to go to the International Quilt Study Center and Museum in Lincoln, Nebraska. What a delight! On display were 200 year old quilts from France and the UK. The English quilts were patchwork but the French all hand quilted silk. If you are ever in Lincoln, don't miss it!

I am really looking forward to our next meeting, when all of us get a chance to show our work at our Member Trunk Show. We all have favorite our techniques or styles, so our show should be quite varied. If everyone brings a couple we will have a terrific exhibition.

This will be a great way to share our different skills and interests and get better acquainted with one another. You might find that there are other members who share the techniques you love.

See you at our Guild meeting on October 15th!

Our next Board Meeting will be at a new venue on Thursday, October 11th, 6:30 p.m., at Citrus Gardens Mobile Home Park Annex Building, 1713 Toyon Glen, Escondido. Members are always welcome and Committee Chairs are encouraged to attend.

Our Next Guild Meeting:

October Meeting Program News

By Alice Johnson

In October we will hold our first annual Members Trunk Show! Over 20 members (please wear name tags) have agreed to share their very own quilted pieces, providing a bit of back story for each one. Mary Lou Rushing will be moderator for this special event.

In addition to our own opportunity quilt, there will be a guest opportunity quilt, so bring a few extra dollars to get in on a chance to win this cutie!

Hospitality News/Needs

By Gail McDaniels

As mentioned last month, we will follow the traditional Hospitality Schedule for refreshments where members are divided into groups alphabetically by last name. Each group is then assigned a month to provide snacks. Individuals within each group may choose what they want to bring. Homemade or store bought, sweet or savory, we love the variety! The Guild provides coffee, tea, ice water, paper goods and utensils.

Watch for reminders in the monthly Sew & Tell, and check the new NCQA Directory (when it is distributed) for the full schedule. Until then, for the October meeting, members whose last name starts with C, D or E are scheduled for snacks.

Thank you in advance! Thank you also to the A - B group for treats last month and to Mary Lou, Rita, Maureen, Alice, and Deb for each bringing an additional treat (as we weren't sure of the number of A-B members)!

Fat Quarters Contest

The fat quarters theme for October is "Halloween Prints and Colors." Please join in the fun and turn in a fat quarter or two at the meeting. You might be a winner!

Membership Committee News

By Susan Peters

Our first Guild meeting of the year was celebrated by having eight visitors! Keep making new friends and bringing current friends to our Guild meetings. You are helping the Guild grow. I hope we have more visitors this month because they'll be able to see my beautiful Hug of Hearts quilt that Guild members made for me as a thank you for being president for the past two years.

After you sign in at the October meeting, please pick up your 2018-2019 membership card. Remember, attached to your card will be two guest passes for up to two people. We're keeping track of which Guild members are using their guest passes so that when a guest becomes a member, the sponsoring member will be rewarded.

After getting your card, you can pick up your NCQA Handbook and Directory too. We've added abbreviated descriptions of all committee positions this year. Check them out and find where you'd like to help the guild. See you on the 15th!

Advertising/Publicity News

By Deanna Console

We have received an overwhelming amount of community support this year in the way of advertising partners. Please be sure to read through the entire newsletter to see which companies have so generously committed to supporting our Guild for the 2018-2019 year.

If you have an opportunity to use any of their services, don't forget to let them know you are a North County Quilt Guild member!

Block of the Month

by Rita McFayden

The winner of the Block of the Month for May was Pat Pariviani. As she wasn't present when her name was drawn, I contacted her. She said that she has several projects in the works (don't we all) and we should go ahead and draw another winner. At our October meeting, we'll have two drawings: one for the May Block of the Month and one for the September Block of the Month. Members who weren't at the meeting, and have the May block of the month, please bring it in to get a chance to win. There will be a new block of the month for October for sale at $3.00 a kit. See you at next meeting in October. ☺

2019 Quilt Show

by Susan Fornoff

The Quilt Show Committee is contacting vendors and continuing to plan for the 2019 Quilt Show. It's a year away from this month! Please be planning and gathering items the Quilt Show will need to be a success.

We need donations for raffle baskets, small quilts, and quilt related items for the silent auction. We need all members to donate a smaller quilt for display or sale. The money raised at the Quilt Show, every other year, is our main Guild fundraiser. It allows us to book speakers, and pay our rent and insurance.

Your participation is vital for the Guild to be the best it can be! Any suggestions or questions can be submitted to any Quilt Show team member: Suzan Fornof, Maureen McClellan, Rita McFayden and Monica Scott. Thanks!

The Escondido South Neighborhood Group has been busy! Many quilts were made over the summer by members for donation to Solutions for Change, in Escondido.

Good Cheer Quilts

by Claire Jungerson

This month we received quilts from Pat Parniani, Susan Cohn, Rita McFayden, Katie Mitchell, Barbara Jacobson, Mary Lou Rushing, and Romany Bowers. Thank you, ladies. Come and visit us (Linda, Sandy, Sue, and Claire) at the back of the room; we have lots of cute kits and some new patterns that are easy and fast to sew. We also have some pillowcase kits that were very popular last month. Remember, there is no time limit on the kits and if you are unable to finish the quilt, bring everything back and we will complete it for you.

Security Blankets

By Maureen McClellan

Thank you so much to everyone who donated blankets and yardage at our September guild meeting. We gave twenty blankets to Palomar Forensics this month. They are greatly appreciated, so please keep them coming. FYI each blanket requires 1-2/3 yards of fleece with selvages trimmed off, and single turning all around.

Happy October Birthday!

- Frances Diehl (10/20)
- Toni Marie King (10/22)
- Debra Dubs (10/25)

Be sure to stop by the White Elephant table to select $5.00 worth of items for your birthday gift!
