President's Message

By Ron Carlton

Everyone I have spoken with since our last meeting praises the Members' Trunk Show we had. I really was pleased to see the variety of talents you all have, and how you are proud to show your early naive efforts alongside your more recent skilled work.

Our new website continues to develop, so be sure to check it out often and watch it evolve. You can view it on your computer or your smartphone, it adapts to how you are viewing it! There is still work going on to expand it, so if you have ideas that would make it better just let our webmaster know.

Along with our new website we also have a special email address —president@ncountyquilters.com— that goes straight to me. Wow. You can bug me anytime, day or night. There are also other specific emails for business with the guild; you can see them on our website.

Did you check out your new guild directory & handbook yet? I must praise Romany for doing such a great job. Although, her wish that my bobbin always be full is not working out very well.

Our next meeting will focus on quilting with wool. So I am looking forward to learning about wool, especially since my daughter moved to where they actually have snow. See you on November 19th!

Our next Board Meeting will be on Thursday, November 8th, 6:30 p.m., at Citrus Gardens Mobile Home Park Annex Building, 1713 Toyon Glen, Escondido. Members are always welcome and Committee Chairs are encouraged to attend.

Our Next Guild Meeting:

Monday, November 19, 2018

*Gloria Dei Lutheran Church
1087 Country Club Lane
Escondido, CA 92026*

Doors Open: 5:45 pm Meeting Starts: 6:30 pm

November Meeting Program

By Alice Johnson

Have you ever crafted with wool? Our presenter for November is Shirley McGuire from Bonita who loves to work in wool. Her topic for the evening is "How to Do Wool Appliqué and Not Go Broke!" Shirley also offers a half day workshop, which she will explain. Perhaps we can have a workshop with her in early 2019!

Membership

By Susan Peters

Last month's meeting was more than amazing. It was really wonderful to see the quilts, table toppers and wall hangings that our members have made. We are quite a talented bunch, huh? We had nine visitors who also were able to enjoy all the beauty that was shared. And the best news is that we have six new members!

Please remember to wear your name tag and to initial the attendance forms at each meeting. If you have any changes to your membership information, please write the down on the form at the membership table. And my last reminder... use one of your guest passes (they never expire) and share our guild with your friends, or ladies you meet while waiting for a clerk to cut your fabric.

Good news for my Thanksgiving guests. I cleaned all of my quilting stuff off the dining room table.

Wait...am I supposed to cook, too?

Block of the Month

by Rita McFayden

We had two drawings, one for the May Block of the Month, and one for the September Block of the Month. Susan Cohn won the May blocks and our President, Ron Carlton, won the September blocks. Congratulations to both of them!

There will be a Block of the Month for November, and the drawing will be held in January. This will give those participating plenty of time to complete each purchased block kit.

Each kit includes pre-cut fabrics and instructions to sew the block. The cost is $3.00 per kit and the money collected supports our Guild programs.

2019 Quilt Show

by Susan Fornoff

We continue to meet for our October 2019 Quilt Show. Vendors are being lined up and plans are being made! Please consider making a duplicate quilt to any project you are working on, to donate to the Quilt Show. We all know it's easier to double a recipe than to start again from scratch.

We are concentrating on featuring quilts that are twin size or smaller. Wall hanging size is great! If you have a bigger quilt that you would like to sell, please see one of the Quilt Show chairwomen (Susan Fornoff, Maureen McClellan, Rita McFayden and Monica Scott).

It is time to start thinking about items for our raffle baskets. Please begin to gather items you can contribute. We appreciate all of your contributions and support to the biggest fundraiser for North County Quilters!

Security Blankets

by Maureen McClellan

On behalf of Palomar Health Forensics, I want to thank the guild for their continued support of our Security Blanket program. We received twenty blankets plus some fleece yardage at our October guild meeting. Please keep them coming, as they are so greatly appreciated. Have a Happy Thanksgiving!

SCCQG

by Susan Peters

Ron Carlton and Maggie Huntwork joined me in attending the October 13th meeting in Lakewood, CA. The topic was Philanthropy and Community Outreach.

After voting for SCCQG officers for the next two years, many of the attending guilds participated by showing & telling us what their guilds outreach activities are. Some guilds make quilts for those who have lost their homes during the recent wild fires, make quilts & pillowcases for children with cancer, make baby and receiving blankets for Camp Pendleton's new arrivals, make Christmas stockings for rescue shelters, make quilts for injured veterans, make quilts for foster children, and make heart shaped pillows for patients recovering from open heart surgery. With Maggie's help, I presented one of our Security Blankets, a Good Cheer quilt, and three Rare Bears. It was heartwarming to be able to brag about our guild starting to make Rare Bears three years ago. It's quite amazing how involved quilt guilds are in their communities and it made us proud to be part of such a giving community.

Interfaith Recognizes NCQA

Friends of Interfaith,

Making a difference in North San Diego County seems to simply require wholehearted creativity. The groups and individuals in this month's Honoring the Spirit of Giving and Volunteerism represent taking what they love and impacting so many people in our community. And they do this all in the spirit of fun!

The employees and friends of Viasat in Carlsbad are an example of throwing a party while raising $13,000 for programs to help people in our neighborhoods. For over a decade, the North County Quilters have supported Interfaith's mission and do what they love, crafting beautiful quilts to share. Individuals like Adan Chincilla, who put his heart into giving, make thoughtful donations we use every day at Interfaith. While young professionals from North San Diego County Association of Realtors and HomeAid San Diego staff & volunteers turn up the fun meter and contribute much needed food and hygiene products in the process.

The month of October seems to scream fun for many all over North County. We thank you for sharing your enthusiasm and innovation this month and every month with people who need it most!

Sincerely,

Micki Hickox, Volunteer Services Manager, and Laura Hernández, Volunteer Services Associate
