Letter from the President:

Susan Peters

I'm ready to put the final binding on two Christmas gift quilts and then all there will be to do is wrap everything (my fingers are crossed for the arrival of the items I ordered on-line). Whew!

It's been a busy year and a very wonderful year. Some of the highlights were the great speakers we enjoyed, all the marvelous donations made to our White Elephant Table, all the fun Blocks of the Month, the darling mini-quilts, lots of lovely "Show & Tell" quilts that were shared, a very successful Quilt Show, all of the Good Cheer quilts donated to Interfaith Services and the security blankets donated to Palomar Forensics. So much happened and I cherish the all the memories. I hope you do too.

Our last meeting of the year will bring us the wonderful food we share at our Christmas Potluck, the awarding of our opportunity quilt income to Wounded Warriors (Camp Pendleton), Rare Science/Rare Bears, Palomar Forensics (Rape Crisis Center) and the Escondido Campus of the Humane Society. Last, but not least, I'm looking forward to the drawing for our Opportunity Quilt.

To start the New Year we will enjoy another bus trip to the Road to California which will be followed by all the beauty and friendship that our guild has to offer. Thank You for making our Guild so great!

See you at the Potluck on the 18th and, Yes, the winning table will be first in the potluck line!

This year our Board Meetings will be held on the second Thursday of each month. Join us on Thursday, Dec. 14 6:30 pm., at Madrid Manor Mobile Home Park, off El Norte Pkwy & Country Club Lane. We meet in the small clubhouse in the rear of the park. ALL members are welcome and Committee Chairs are encouraged to attend.

LOOKING THROUGH THE EYE OF THE NEEDLE

Carol Macaluso, Editor

Busy, busy, busy. Aren't we all? The year is almost over and before you know it, the Quilt Guild year will be over too.

This will be my third year doing the Sew & Tell Newsletter and I'm ready to take a break and move on to other things. I'm asking for someone to step up and take over the publication.

I will be able to work with a new volunteer and make for a very easy transition even providing my templates to get started.

If you are interested, please contact me or our President, Susan Peters.

In the meantime, stay well and prosper throughout the holiday Season!

Hope you had a great Thanksgiving see you at the pot luck!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

This month we celebrate the following birthdays:

Joy Smith 2nd

Pat Warsh 4th

Alice Johnson 7th

REMEMBER Birthday folks --- stop by our "white-elephant" table in January to choose your free-gifts of fabric or doo-dads before the meeting.

Thank you all for all your support while I learn the ropes and become more involved at my new position as Membership Chair. I certainly appreciate your smiles at the door each meeting.

Remember to stop by my table and retrieve your directory, if you did not have the opportunity during the first couple meetings. EVERYONE has their name on the cover. They are bright yellow and in alphabetical order at my table.

ALSO, remember that you have been issued a VISITOR GUEST PASS with your membership. FREE fun! Utilize our directory and look ahead: what speakers are scheduled? What Fat Quarter bundles are being given away? Maybe it's a potluck meeting!- - and bring a friend to get inspired WITH you. This upcoming December meeting is a FANTASTIC time to come as a meet and greet and mingle opportunity as it is our annual Table-Decorating Holiday Potluck meeting.
