Letter from the President:

Susan Peters

Wow, January was a fun filled month!

For me, Road to California this year was Overwhelming. I finally overdosed on all the Beauty and just had to leave the building! I kept getting sucked into another booth with something more beautiful than what the last booth offered (and my credit card showed it too!).

Knowing I would probably never get to Hamilton, Missouri, I treated myself to Jenny Doan's Trunk Show at Road. Yes, THE Jenny Doan of Missouri Star Quilting Company. As I sat watching her I realized that I was blessed to watch this remarkable lady who loves sharing her quilting talents with the whole wide world. It was really an amazing and wonderful evening.

Now February is upon us. Are you in the midst of making something pink with hearts on it?

Our guild board meeting will be on the 8th. The Del Mar Del Mar Quilt, Sewing, Craft Show is on Feb. 15-17. If you haven't already signed up to sell tickets for our 2018 Opportunity Quilt, please call Mary Watkins at 760-745-9829 and do so. Our Guild meeting is on the 19th which leaves us with only 1 ½ weeks before the month will be over. Yes, it's another fast forward month.

See you at our guild meeting on the 19th!

This year our Board Meetings will be held on the second Thursday of each month. Join us on Thursday, Feb. 8 at 6:30 pm., at Madrid Manor Mobile Home Park, off El Norte Pkwy & Country Club Lane. We meet in the small clubhouse in the rear of the park. ALL members are welcome and Committee Chairs are encouraged to attend.

Next Guild Meeting: Monday, Feb 19, 2018

*Gloria Dei Lutheran Church
1087 Country Club Lane
Escondido CA 92026*

Meeting starts at 6:30pm
(Doors open at 5:45 pm)

LOOKING THROUGH THE EYE OF THE NEEDLE

Carol Macaluso, Editor

Another year, another beautiful Opportunity Quilt. Be sure to buy your tickets and you may also be lucky like Sue Russell from Carona, CA. You have to be in it to win it! Someone has to win.

Just a reminder that we need many new volunteers to step up and give back by volunteering to take on a leadership or committee member job. Mine is one of them. I'm still hoping and praying that someone will do the Newsletters starting next year. After 3 years I'm ready to move on and I can provide templates that will make it very easy for someone to take over.

Welcome new January members Betty Allen and Karen Taylor!

BLOCK OF THE MONTH

Rita McFayden

The winner for the January block of the month was very lucky Maureen McClellan! This is her second time winning the blocks I think she should buy a lottery ticket. A new block of the month for February will be available for sale at our next meeting. There are several months available for any member(s) to make a kit. The months of March, April, May, September, October and November are open. A sign-up sheet is available at our next meeting or give me a call.

May you have a wonderful, delish chocolate candy

GOOD CHEER QUILTS

Clair Junderson, Linda Steiner, Sandy Hunter and Sue Ragan

We received quilts from Merlo Rhinehart and Rita McFayden. Thank you very much. Come visit us at the back of the room. We have many cute kits and there is no deadline for returning them. See you at the meeting.

FAT QUARTERS

Janis Newlin

Thanks to all who brought Valentine Pints & Colors to the January meeting. I was thrilled to win them!

The February Fat Quarter contest is Purples & Lavenders. So many of us love purple & lavender fabrics. I hope to see many participate in the February contest so we can draw for two winners. See you at the February meeting.

PARLIAMENTARIAN

Suzan Fornof

This month we will be looking for many members to step up to be nominated for open board and committee positions for the next year. There is a black board on the table at the guild meeting which states all open positions. Please feel free to ask Susan Peters, current board and committee members or myself about what a position would entail. We need you to continue to have the wonderful guild we have. Please consider doing your part to help the guild. Thank you.

I sure hope everyone was inspired by our last speaker in January. Let's keep that energy going and hopefully clear off that project table and begin a new one that brings joy to a life. Let that energy spread and touch others as you share your love of this craft of quilting.

We are still accepting new members. In fact, the last two meetings we have had new folks sign up. That is all because of you, our members. The energy and light that you share touches many. Never forget that. Use your hearts to open others to the passion we all have in common. Let's share in the combined creativity, joy, love and the true purpose of our talents...to help bring a light into another's life.

PROGRAMS

Alice Johnson

Our guest presenter for February is Becky McDaniel. Her lecture is titled "My Applique Journey". She will give a trunk show and talk about several types of applique she likes to do in her projects. She will have samples to pass out so we can see her work up close and personal. Her passion has always been about making things. Now that she is retired she is finally getting to do what she wants to do!

In March we will be holding the monthly NCQA meeting at Quilt in a Day in South San Marcos. The March 19 meeting will begin at 6:30, as usual. Eleanor Burns will be presenting "A Patchwork Party", featuring some of her own patterns! We will have our usual refreshments. I will be passing around a sign-up sheet at the February meeting. If you can take others with you, please indicate. If you NEED a ride, please indicate. I will try to help everyone attend this very special evening! (Daylight Savings Time begins March 11).

WHEELCHAIR QUILTS

Alice Johnson

Two finished quilts were turned in at the January meeting. There are several kits ready for someone to step up and make them! We will be having a Saturday Wheelchair Quilt Work Day soon. We are way behind on the quantity we have made in the past, so let's do our part to support this worthwhile cause.
