Thank you to the Sundance Kids neighborhood group for creating our 2019 Opportunity Quilt!

President's Message

By Ron Carlton

At our December meeting, we drew the name of the winner of our 2018 Opportunity Quilt. Many thanks go to the South Escondido neighborhood group who made and promoted the quilt, with special thanks to Joanne Eichler.

At our January meeting, the Sundance neighborhood group will unfurl the 2019 Opportunity Quilt. Be sure to be there to see the quilt we will ALL volunteer to sell raffle tickets for this year.

If you want to be involved in the creation of the 2020 Opportunity Quilt, please join Gail Fisher on the evening of our next guild meeting. Gail will be meeting with volunteers at 5:45 pm in the library, just before the general meeting begins, to distribute patterns and kits for the 2020 Opportunity Quilt. This is a great opportunity to get involved with a team of sewing enthusiasts.

Happy New Year to all of you!

Our next Board Meeting will be on Thursday, January 10th at 6:30 pm. at the Citrus Gardens Senior Park Annex Building, 1730 Toyon Glen, Escondido. Members are always welcome and Committee Chairs are encouraged to attend.

January starts off the Southern California Council of Quilt Guilds with a meeting entitled Meeting Nuts & Bolts in Irvine, CA. on January 12th. SCCQG meetings have great information about quilt shows and other guilds as well displaying various opportunity quilts for our eyes to enjoy. I'm looking forward to a delightful meeting.

Quilt Show

by Monica Scott

Start thinking about the Quilt Show 2019! Remember, we will need quilts for sale (smaller than a twin, preferably lap size and wall hangings) and small items for the Silent Auction. There will be a sign up sheet for the Raffle Baskets if you want to create a basket. Details on quilts, auction, and baskets will follow in the coming months. Get ready for some surprises this year.

Happy New Year to all! We enjoyed the Christmas Pot Luck with the great food, quilt drawing, and the game with fat quarters! We were able to give a quilt book to everyone who attended. For the bus trip to Road to CA, we are giving quilting magazines, fat quarters, and some prizes for the games. This month we will bring lots of very nice fabric from a new donation for your quilting projects! See you there!

Security Blankets

by Maureen McClellan

Happy New Year everyone! Holiday sewing is over, so it is time to get back to our Security Blankets. I look forward to collecting what you have at our January Guild meeting. Thank you for your support of this much needed project.

At last month's meeting, three representatives from Palomar Health Forensics expressed their gratitude, presenting the Guild with a beautiful, framed pinwheel block, representing each of the services they provide. Look for it at our meeting.

Quilt Surprise for Past President Carrie Harrison

At the December guild meeting, I received such a wonderful surprise...a beautiful butterfly quilt!

Thank you to all who created a block, to Karolyn Hart and Louise Anselmo for putting the top together, and to Alice Johnson for doing the long arm quilting. Some blocks were not signed, so I'll be bringing the quilt back to the January meeting, along with a signature pen, for a second chance to sign your square. Thanks again for a special gift, which I will treasure always. Carrie
