President's Message

By Alice Johnson

We had such a nice in-person meeting in September and I am really looking forward to our October Meeting! San Diego County's COVID numbers seem to be leveling out and the news reports that California is leading the country in successful protocols, so I am optimistic that we will be meeting in person again this month, masks and all.

I want to thank Carrie Harrison for all her efforts in booking speakers and acting as our liaison with Gloria Dei Church. Thanks also go out to Jan Wesley and all who came early to prepare for our first meeting in 18 months! If you are interested in White Elephant sales, Louise Anselmo and Karolyn Hart are planning on having items at our next meeting. I appreciate their dedication and taking time to hold the sale this past month as well. They say it takes a village to raise a child. In our case, it takes the entire membership to restore our guild to its joyful purpose of supporting our love of quilting!

As the newsletter goes to press, we have 53 registered members! Thank you Lynn Cass, Gail McDaniels, and Susan Peters for coordinating our membership drive!

Gloria Dei Lutheran Church

October Meeting Program

By Carrie Harrison-Mortimer

This month's speaker, coming to us from Hemet, CA, is Lenie Bosman. She will be speaking to us on "Her Quilt Journey."

Join us as she presents a trunk show on her very beautiful quilts. She is a credentialed instructor with the state of California and certified to teach all "Quilt in a Day" patterns. She is a designer and currently working on her own unique quilt patterns. Hope to see you then!!

Good Cheer Quilts

By Claire Jungersen

I'm sorry I had to miss our meeting but had good reports about it. We received quilts, pillowcases, and a bag of toiletries from members and Good Cheer committee members. We received from Paula Huntington, Romany Bowers, Jill Conger, Rita McFayden, Charlotte Huff, and Maureen McClellan. We have 20 quilts, 12 pillowcases, and a bag of toiletries for Interfaith. A special thank you to White Elephant for their generous supply of fabric. Thank you again to everyone, stay well and safe and see you next month!

Linda, Sandy, Sue, Leslie, and Claire

White Elephant

By Karolyn Hart and Louise Anselmo

Happy Fall! We will be ready to sell fabric when the doors open at the October guild meeting. We will try to space boxes apart to give everyone some elbow room. In September sales totaled $476. There are some fabric collections available (see photos). The collection of corduroy (top) is $23. The collection of flannel (bottom) is $17. If you are interested, please call Karolyn Hart.

Dad joke: Why did the scarecrow win an award?
Because he was out standing in his field.

Membership*By Lynn Cass and Susan Peters

We had such a great meeting in September – it was so nice to see so many quilt members! Thank you to all who have renewed their memberships and thank you to all the new members who have joined the guild this past month. It is so wonderful to hang out again with quilters! At the October meeting, we will be distributing the Directory for this year at the sign in table and as a reminder you can pick up your new membership card at the table if you have not received yours yet! They come in very handy to receive discounts at most quilt shops 😊 Remember that guild meetings are always the third Monday of the month. See you at the meeting!

Request for assistance

Our guild received the following request: I am interested in getting my son's running shirts made into a quilt. I would appreciate someone contacting me if they do this or could help. Text is fine. Thank you. Please contact Whitley Rynn at 619-200-7475 or dynamicdigits.whitley@gmail.com.

Show and Tell

Carrie Harrison-Mortimer (right) I didn't finish any projects however, I did get married on September 25th, 2021. 😊

Janis Newlin (above) Happy Halloween 🎃!

A UFO table runner and a UFO wall hanging helped Alice Johnson get in the Christmas spirit in September!
