President's Message

By Alice Johnson

I am SO thrilled that we have several new members, as well as some former members who have again joined us in NCQA! To help us get acquainted with our very newest members, I have been making phone calls, and I would like to spotlight Laurel Conger this month. Laurel is the daughter of Jill Conger, one of our members, so it is no surprise to learn that her interest in quilting was encouraged by her mom! Jill helped Laurel make her first quilt in 2020, a baby quilt which was a special gift for a friend. This mother-daughter duo has enjoyed going to quilt shows and also checking out local quilting supply shops. Laurel likes to sew quick and simple projects like pillowcases and tends to prefer modern designs and decorative patterns. As she has begun making her own quilts, she finds it challenging to do the piecing. She currently works for AAA as an underwriter. Welcome to NCQA, Laurel!

November Meeting Program

By Carrie Harrison-Mortimer

Raise your hand if you have fabric scraps or maybe a fabric stash... Yup, we all do. That's where Sandy Corbin comes in to help us all out. She will be presenting "Making Scrappy Quilts Fresh." She, like many of us, loves to play with colors, feeling the different textures of fabrics in creating something both fun and beautiful. Visit Sandy's website (www.sandycquilts.com) to view her creations and then make sure to join us at our guild meeting on Monday, November 15th. See you then!!

Good Cheer Quilts

Hello Quilters! The tally for October is 12 quilts and 3 pillow cases. Maggie Morelos made two quilts and one pillowcase, Suzie Owen made one quilt, and Jenny Gillette made two pillowcases. Thanks, ladies! The other 9 quilts were made by Good Cheer committee members, either singly or as a group. Go to <http://onewomanshands.blogspot.com/> to see them all. Thanks to the White Elephant committee and Gail McDaniels for their fabric donations. We'll make good use of it. At the November meeting we'll have pillowcase kits on hand, plus quilt kits in patterns we haven't used in a while. Stop by and pick one up. There's no deadline to return it and everything but batting is in the kit. It's a great way to get your feet wet if you're new(ish) to quilting or as a quick project in between your own quilts. Thanks! Claire, Linda, Sandy, Sue & Leslie

White Elephant

By Karolyn Hart and Louise Anselmo

At the November meeting, there will be lots of new fabrics, patterns, notions, and books! Last month, sales totaled $600.

Joke of the month: Why is Peter Pan always flying?
Because he Neverlands!

Membership

By Lynn Cass

Hi to all NCQA! We had a great turn out at our October meeting where 31 members signed in and 5 visitors attended. Thank you to all who signed in at the door and to those who either invited a guest or told others about our wonderful guild! The speaker was great and we had really nice door prizes and a drawing. Thanks to all who were part of gathering it all for us to enjoy! Our November meeting will be just as fun. Hope to see you all! As a reminder, for those who renewed your membership for this year, I still have some Directories to be picked up and some Membership cards so don't forget to stop by the table after signing in to pick them up. Happy Thanksgiving to all!

November Birthdays

A very happy birthday to all our members with a birthday this month:

Joan Glaser (11/2)
Deanna Console (11/11)
Sandy Hunter (11/13)
Marie Tuck (11/15)
Nicole Tsakos (11/16)
Karen Maher (11/17)
Mel Alpert (11/20)
Ann Parker (11/22)
Gail McDaniels (11/30)

Remember to stop by the White Elephant table to select $5 worth of items for your birthday gift!

Security Blankets By Maureen McClellan

I hope everyone is enjoying this lovely Fall weather. Patty, from Palomar Forensics, picked up 44 fleece blankets on October 18th, thanks to Janis Newlin (2), Louise Anselmo (3), and Mira Mesa Women's Club (39). We are off to a good start for this month as we have 10 blankets donated by Elaine Einman, Joy Smith, and Jenny Gillette. Thank you ladies. If any of you took advantage of Joann's sale on fleece, and have blankets or yardage to be picked up, please call me at 760-224-3494. All donations are greatly appreciated. Thanks for your continued support!

Sew Hungry Quilters Where are they??.... Where have they gone??

You've all been greatly missed at our NCQA guild 'Sew Hungry' Luncheon!! Please come join us for food & fun with your quilting friends!!

November 10th at 11:30 am at the Golden Egg Omelet House on Mission Ave & Center City Pkwy in Escondido. (Behind Arby's and McDonalds)

Whatever you pay for your lunch, 10% is paid back to our guild!! Not just this day, but on any day you eat at the Golden Egg Omelet House!! Any questions contact Carrie (760-822-9977)

Fat Quarters By Janis Newlin

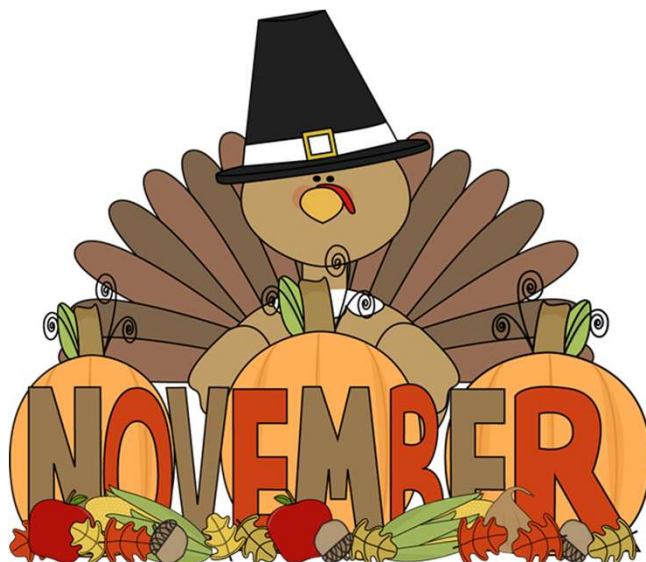

Our November Fat Quarter contest will be Christmas prints. Join in the fun and bring your Fat Quarters! One chance to win for each Fat Quarter you bring.

Quilts for Veterans

At the October meeting, Ken Warsh asked for assistance with making lap quilts for veterans from his wife's large stash of patriotic fabric. Ken will provide all materials, he just needs help with the sewing. For more information or to volunteer, contact Ken at 760-480-8593 or kwarsh@outlook.com.

SCCQG Call for Quilt Entries

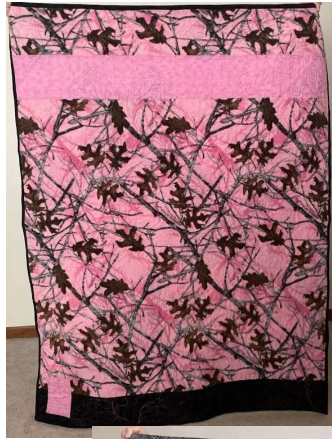

The Southern California Council of Quilt Guilds (SCCQG) is looking for a few more entries for their exhibit at the Road to California quilt show in January. Their exhibit will showcase quilts of all styles and techniques made by Southern California quiltmakers. The deadline for submitting quilts has been extended to November 10. Entry requirements and the application form are available on the SCCQG website, www.sccqg.org. E-mail Olivia Carnahan at Liv4quilts@aol.com with any questions.

Show and Tell

I did a "baby" quilt she could grow into.

Mary Lou Rushing (right)
Here is an advent calendar I made for my grandkids, but my son remembers how much fun he and his sister had doing theirs. He will do it for his kids, 24 and 22.

Leslie Sowden (left)
Here's a quilt I made a couple months ago from my fave batiks. It's about 60x60.
