President's Message

By Alice Johnson

HAPPY NEW YEAR! I hope this finds everyone well and rested from our holiday activities. I have had a hard time 'getting back in the saddle,' but soon will be back into the routine...

I had a lovely conversation with one of our new members and would like to share her story with each of you! Barbara Michalec is a California native. Her dad was career Air Force so they lived many places, finally returning to California. Her first time to see San Diego was en-route to Tucson where her husband went to school. She fell in love with this area and, luckily, her husband's first work brought them right back here! Barbara was both a computer programmer and an elementary teacher! She has 1 daughter and 1 granddaughter. Her quilting skills came from a class she took with Sharon Craig in the 1980's. She loves to do appliqué!! Welcome to NCQA.

I look forward to seeing each of you at our January 17th meeting!

Our next Guild Meeting is

January Meeting Program

By Carrie Harrison-Mortimer

This month's speaker is Kathryn Pellman joining us with a special lecture, "A Fashionista in Quarantine." She is an artist, fashionista, quilter, cook, baker, gardener, and storyteller. Commercial fabric is her paint, thread is her ink, and the sewing machine her pen. Come join us as she shares many of her creative creations. Check out her website at www.kathrynpellman.com and then we'll see you on Monday, January 17.

January Birthdays

A very happy birthday to all our members with a birthday this month:

 Claire Jungersen (1/16)

 Lelie Sowden (1/20)

Remember to stop by the White Elephant table to select $5 worth of items for your birthday gift!

Security Blankets

By Maureen McClellan

Happy, healthy New Year everyone. I will be contacting Palomar Forensics in the next week or so to deliver some Security Blankets. If anyone has any fleece blankets or fleece yardage to donate, please call me and I'll be happy to collect them (760-224-3494). As a reminder, each blanket we donate to Palomar Forensics for their sexual abuse and domestic violence survivors, takes 1-2/3 yards of 58/60" wide fleece. Blizzard solids/subtle prints work well. Trim off selvages and hem around all four sides. Thank you so much for your continued support, it is greatly appreciated.

Membership

By Lynn Cass

Happy New Year to all, wishing you many blessings as you plan your quilts, sew them and maybe give them to all your families and friends throughout the year who get to enjoy your creations!

I am looking forward to this year's opportunities with the guild members and visitors at our meetings. Each month we can enjoy and appreciate all the many aspects of the art of quilting as we gather to enjoy each other's company, be part of the various activities, learn from each other, and hear great speakers. This reminds me that I would like to encourage members to invite friends and/or acquaintances to our meetings. We have had several new members lately which is wonderful! If you have not received your new membership card for this year yet please stop by the sign in area and pick up your card which can come in handy when buying fabrics or supplies at most quilt shops.

As some of you already know this month is Road2CA, January 19-22. More information is on their website – this might be a fun activity with friends from the guild. This will be my first time to go and I am so excited! Hope to see you all at our January 17th meeting – doors open at 5:45.
