President's Message

By Ron Carlton

Well quilters, I have spent the last couple of weeks in Connecticut. I haven't been here this time of year before but I'm so glad to be here now. Autumn is beginning. Each day we drive down the parkway and each day the colors have changed. The green pallet of summer is becoming the autumn pallet, one day a tree is green and the next it is yellow or orange or red. It is wonderful to watch the transition.

The autumn pallet immediately brings to mind the quilts we make with those colors. But I have a friend who is currently in Peru, above tree line, and the pictures he has sent reveal a different pallet, what we would call earth colors.

This month we have our Quilt Show, and of the hundred quilts we are showing and selling we will see many color pallets. I look forward to being inspired by your work. Be sure to sign up to volunteer for the show. You will want to spend a couple of hours there anyway, why not engage with our visitors and share your enthusiasm for our craft.

And don't forget our monthly general meeting either!

Our next Board Meeting will be on Thursday, October 10th, at 6:30 pm. at the Citrus Gardens Senior Park Annex Building, 1730 Toyon Glen, Escondido. Members are always welcome and Committee Chairs are encouraged to attend.

Our Next Guild Meeting Monday, October 21, 2019

October Meeting Program

By Alice Johnson

We are delighted to welcome Jeana Nash as our presenter in October. She is the west coast representative for Days for Girls and has lots of new information to share with us. It is amazing how the simple skill of sewing has become a worldwide phenomenon in that groups and individuals are rallying around young women in third world countries who miss school each month because they lack feminine hygiene supplies. Several NCQA members are active in the Escondido Days for Girls group, so be sure to come and hear what large or small ways we can all help this cause!

Hospitality News

Don't forget to bring your own water, coffee, tea or snack to the meeting, since it will not be provided by the Guild at this time. Our Hospitality position is still available.

Block of the Month

By Jill Conger

If you took a block kit at the September meeting, please have it completed by our October meeting. I will be making 12 block kits for the next meeting. We are going to be combining grey/blue/purple! Bring $3.00 if you would like to participate!

Fat Quarters Contest

By Janis Newlin

I'm back home from my trip to Machu Pichu. I learned that I knew nothing about Peru. It was a very interesting country and its ancient history goes back to the remains of pyramids from about 2000 BC. The Incas were only in power for about 150 years (1400's-1500's) when Pizarro invaded, and the area of Peru came under the Spanish rule.

Back to business: The "Fat Quarter Contest" for the October meeting is HALLOWEEN PRINTS & COLORS. This is the favorite category during the year so be sure to join in. See you at the October meeting.

Happy October Birthday!

Frances Diehl (10/20)
Toni Marie King (10/22)
Debra Dubs (10/25)

Be sure to stop by the White Elephant Table to select $5.00 worth of items for your birthday gift!

Good Cheer Quilts

by Claire Jungersen

Thank you so much for all your donations of fabric and batting. We will make good use of all of it. When I took the last batch of quilts to Interfaith the worker was telling me that they are always in need of toiletries as they have many homeless people who come to use their showers. If you would like to donate at any time bring your donation to our table and we can take them when we take the quilts. This month we got 3 quilts and 11 pillowcases from Barbara Jacobson, Jill Conger, Mary Lou Rushing, Sharon Bitting, and Joy Smith. Thank you again and we will see you at the meeting.

White Elephant Table

By Karolyn Hart

In October, there will be new selections of fabric and many kits available! Thank you for the fabric donations! In September, we brought in $155.00.

Quilt Show News

by Suzan Fornof

In less than one month we will have our biennial quilt show on Oct. 25 and 26. Thanks to those who signed up at the last Guild meeting to offer their help in positions around the show. We will next be asking for your time of commitment so please be ready on how much time you can give. We have a lot of fun those two days so a lot of people choose to stay for the day. Training will be coming soon. Any and all help is gratefully appreciated by the Guild. We are asking that any and all auction items get to Rita McFayden as soon as possible or by the Guild meeting in October. Those of you who have made arrangements with Rita about quilts coming in late, please get them to her as soon as possible. Thanks to all your help we hope this will be our greatest quilt show ever !

Rare Bear Army

By Tonita Waters

Boy how time seems to go by so much faster as we get closer to a deadline. The last time to turn in items for the Rare Bear Booth is October 19th. This is a new activity for the RBA and we are very excited. As I have said before all proceeds from the booth will be donated to Rare Science for the mailing of the bears to a rare child. Two days after the quilt show we fly to Houston for the International Quilt Show. What an experience this is. Over 60 thousand people attend from all over the world. I believe this is the 5th year Rare Science has been invited to attend. If you ever want to see some beautiful quilts this is where to go. Thank you to everyone for your help.

Security Blankets

by Maureen McClellan

We're off to a good start with our Security Blankets for Palomar Health Forensics domestic abuse and sexual assault survivors. We received ten blankets and six pieces of trimmed fleece at our September meeting. As a reminder, each blanket requires 1-2/3 yards of fleece, selvages trimmed off, and single turn hem on all sides, using whatever stitch you like. Thank you so much for your continued support of this project.

Opportunity Quilt

By Maureen McClellan

Ticket sales are still going well. We will be having the quilt at our Quilt show, El Camino Quilt Guild, The Butler Did It, and Mike's BBQ with the Humane Society in the coming weeks. If anyone has any thoughts about some other venue possibilities, or if you need more tickets to sell to friends and family, please let me know.

Advertising

By Deanna Console

I'd like to take this opportunity to say a big THANK YOU to all of the incredible businesses advertising with the North County Quilters Association this year. The level of support shown by these businesses is truly remarkable. I hope that all of our members will remember to visit their businesses whenever you have a chance to show our support for them.

Membership

By Susan Peters

Well, all the members who renewed by the September Guild meeting will be in the Guild Membership Handbook & Directory - Whoopee!! And we welcomed two new members into the guild, Katy Freese and Peggy Noland. Please make them feel welcome.

I know some members may be on vacation or might have forgotten to turn in their form in time. Please check with your friends to see if it might be them and give them a gentle nudge to re-join. They won't be listed in the Directory however their information will be on the 'Members Only' page of our website so they won't really be left out.

Now, about the tally of the questionnaire on this year's membership form.... I don't have it done yet (drats). Look for all the nitty-gritty details in our November Newsletter.

Things to remember:

- At our meetings, sign in with your initials on the attendance pages which are located on the piano top just to the left inside the entrance of our guild meetings.
- Keep your Visitor Pass in your purse or wallet so it's handy to give to someone that might be interested in attending one of our meetings.
- It's almost time for our Quilt Show!! Thanks for helping us have a successful show!

Glendale Quilt Guild Show

The Glendale Quilt Guild will present a quilt show at the Glendale Civic Auditorium on March 28/29 2020. The show will include a special exhibit, The Thread of the Story, quilts with narratives. The stories of these quilts will have particular historical/cultural/social significance for the families who treasure them. We want to exhibit quilts that illustrate a historical event or journey or pilgrimage or celebration or natural wonder, as examples.

If your family has a story quilt and you are willing to exhibit the quilt and its story, please contact Hester Bell by email or phone (hbelle@rsabg.org or 626-794-1790). Please be prepared to send dimensions and a photo or photos of your quilt along with a brief summary of the quilt's story.

Quilts will be exhibited in a secure, air-conditioned facility. There is no submission fee to exhibit story quilts. Glendale Quilt Guild will not pay to exhibit a quilt. All decisions about inclusion of a quilt in this exhibit will be made by Hester
