President's Message

By Ron Carlton

Ladies, I hope you have had a great summer. The heat is still with us, so at this point I hope we can see the end of summer soon.

Our Guild agenda for this year begins with preparation for our October Quilt Show. I am trying to meet the deadline for submitting quilts for the show. I have two finished already and can surely finish a third and hopefully a fourth in time. I hope you can do the same so that we have a fantastic show and sale. Read more below from the Quilt Show Committee.

As you know we have had some turnover in Board Members and Committee Chairs. Unfortunately, we have not had a volunteer step forward for the Hospitality position. The consequence of this is that we will not have coffee, drinks, or snacks available for the September meeting, so please bring any refreshment that you may require. Our hope is that this is a temporary situation. If anyone would like to step forward for this position, please let me or other Board Members know and we can work with you and explain everything you need to know.

I look forward to seeing you all at our September meeting, and I hope you have some fantastic quilts to share at our Show and Tell. I did a lot of hand piece work on my summer vacation, and it is not ready to share yet, but will hopefully be by October (being an honest quilter I won't specify a year).

Our next Board Meeting will be on Thursday, September 12th, at 6:30 pm. at the Citrus Gardens Senior Park Annex Building, 1730 Toyon Glen, Escondido. Members are always welcome and Committee Chairs are encouraged to attend.

Our Next Guild Meeting Monday, September 16, 2019

*Gloria Dei Lutheran Church
 1087 Country Club Lane
 Escondido, CA 92026*

Doors Open: 5:45 pm Meeting Starts: 6:30 pm

September Meeting Program

By Alice Johnson

Our September speaker is Trudy Cleveland. Her topic is "Modernize Your Quilt Toolbox." Trudy has lots of neat ideas about blending technology with traditional quilting. You won't want to miss her innovative presentation. Come prepared to take notes!

Hospitality News

Don't forget to bring your own water, coffee, tea or snack to the meeting, since it will not be provided by the Guild at this time. Our Hospitality position is still available.

Security Blankets

by Maureen McClellan

I am so pleased to report that, thanks to your continued support over the summer, we have donated 35 more fleece blankets to Palomar Forensics. This brings our total for September to August to 287! Be proud! Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

White Elephant Table

By Karolyn Hart

I hope everyone had a nice summer break with lots of relaxation and quilting. We have been busy putting together baskets for the Quilt Show which will be here very soon! See you in September!

Fat Quarters Contest

By Janis Newlin

Welcome back for the new year of our Quilt Guild. The September Fat Quarter Contest category is "Fruit & Veggie Prints."

Joy Smith's daughter, Jennie, will be at my station in the back. I will be in Peru. Come and say "Hi" and bring your fat quarters. See you in October.

Happy September Birthday!

Karolyn Hart (9/11)

Linda Steiner (9/22)
Judee Johnson (9/24)

Quilt Show News

by Suzan Fornof

In less than 2 months and only 2 Guild meetings, we will have our biennial Quilt Show!

For September Guild meeting:

- Last Call for T-shirt and tote bags orders. Please bring checks or cash. Monica Scott will take your order and have them ready by the Quilt Show. We are hoping everyone will wear the Guild T-shirt to the Quilt Show.
- Last Call at September Guild meeting to turn in quilts and auction items to Rita McFayden. There is a 2 page form to accompany quilts for the Quilt Show. You may access the forms on the Members Only section of the NCQA website. If you have any questions or extra donations please see Rita, Monica, Maureen or Suzan. Please get in touch with Rita to turn in your quilts now. See Mary Watkins about donations for the boutique table.
- There will be a clipboard going around at the September Guild meeting to sign up for volunteer positions. If you have a favorite spot or preference from working at the last show please let us know. We have morning and afternoon shifts. You may also volunteer for the day or both days, whatever you are able to do. This is an excellent opportunity for newer people to meet many Guild members. Training, which will be announced, will be provided before the Quilt Show.
- Currently we have only 4-5 wall hanging size quilts and 25 regular size quilts. We need many more, especially wall hanging size quilts to have a successful 2 day Quilt Show.

Thank you for your help and time to make our biggest fundraiser for the Guild a huge success. All money earned at the Quilt Show stays in the Guild to fund speakers, pay for our rent, and other expenses the Guild incurs over the next 2 years.

Help Wanted

This yoyo quilt needs to be repaired as some of the yo-yos are loose and will have to be sewn. Also, a couple of rows need to be attached. If there is a Guild member able to make this repair, please call 760-781-5136.

Quilt Show Opportunity Baskets

My goodness, is it September already? Our Quilt Show is less than 2 months away. Yikes!! Just a reminder is being given to all of you special people that have volunteered to provide a completed basket. Please bring it to the September Guild meeting with your completed Basket Itemization Form. Thank you all so much! Questions? Contact me, Carrie Harrison, at my cell #760-822-9977.

P.S. If any one would be nice enough to use one of those fabulous Jo-Ann's or Michael's coupons to help purchase the clear plastic gift basket bags, which we use for wrapping them, it would be so very much appreciated! Or, bring the coupon to me! Every little bit of savings helps our Guild.

Rare Bear Army

By Tonita Waters

What a fantastic summer we have had. We mailed over 1200 bears to special children and we held our first R.B.A. Sponsored Retreat at the Prince of Peace Abbey in Oceanside. We had 18 attendees sewing everything from baby blankets, dresses for a granddaughter, Xmas ornaments, stuffed animals and, of course, bears.

The cook for the Abbey was on vacation while we were there. We were honored by having a brother of one of the monks, who was a chef with a James Beard award, do some of the meals.

We met some great people. The grounds are beautiful and the bees produce great honey (which came home with some of us).

Our next Retreat is the weekend of July 10, 2020. We are accepting reservations now. For more info, contact me at tonitawaters@gmail.com or 760 815-9244.

Action Requested: Members Only Login Change

In early August, website technology installed a new login procedure to the Members Only page of our website. Many of you responded to my August 10th email notice and used the new process to create a new password. I encourage all Guild members to create a new password now, even though you may not have a need to access the page at this time.

Here's how it works: The next time you login to the Members Only page using your email address you will get instructions to create and confirm a password (must be at least 8 characters). Going forward, that password will give you direct access to the Members Only section. You will no longer get an email with a link to the page each time you login. A good thing!

Note: You will find forms and information for our fast approaching 2019 Quilt Show on the Members Only page!

Contact me if you have any questions, or if the new login process doesn't go smoothly for you.

Opportunity Quilt

By Maureen McClellan

Ticket sales continue to do well. A huge thank you to our volunteers, without whom this would not be possible.

We had two, four-day weekends in July at Inspirations Quilt Shop for the Quilt Run, where we took in $462. On August 25th, we were at Mike's BBQ with The Humane Society, and made $47. Our total so far is $1252, not including member ticket sales.

We still have several venues to attend before the drawing in December. Please keep in mind, all of us have a chance to win this stunning quilt, so make sure you turn in your ticket money and stubs, if you haven't already done so.

Membership

By Susan Peters

After seeing all the inspiration at the SD Quilt Show I am SO excited about this new quilting year! I've even been going to sleep dreaming of making some wonderful quilts. I took a friend with me who had never been to a quilt show. Most of her sewing life has been making garments so it was a delight to introduce her to the world of quilting. To be surrounded by all that beauty and show off quilts made by experts and kids – it was a heavenly day.

Please have your Membership Form filled out and ready to turn in, with your check or cash, at September's Guild meeting. (I'll have forms available, in case you forget to bring yours with you). I want to say a sincere "Thank You" for the 30 early bird renewals – give yourself a pat on the back. I'm especially looking forward to compiling all the responses to the questionnaire on this year's membership form – what a treasure trove of information that will be.

I have always enjoyed sewing and now I know why...

Five Health Benefits of Sewing

1. Relieves Stress – The meditative action of sewing encourages positivity and feelings of relaxation.
2. Promotes Brain Growth – The creative nature of sewing encourages the formation of new brain cells!
3. Happiness! – Sewing increases dopamine in the brain, which makes us feel HAPPY!
4. Fights Dementia – Sewing keeps the mind clear, focused & active, which can help prevent dementia as we age.
5. Improve your Hand/Eye Coordination - Sewing requires a certain type of attention to detail that encourages coordination, especially hand/eye.
