General Information

1. The actions of all Coaches, Players, and Fans should glorify God in the spirit of Christian Fellowship. This league was established for the social and physical development of players. The goals of the league are to teach basketball fundamentals, promote sportsmanship, and develop a love of the game.

3. Play will begin on December 14th and run through February 15th. Games will be on Saturdays on the Bishop Kelley campus and other Diocesan schools when necessary.
4. Teams need 5 players to play a game. Teams will have 10 minutes after the scheduled start time to field 5 players or a forfeit occurs. If a team needs to borrow a player in order to start the game, you can borrow from another team from your school. The 2 coaches (as well as the coach who is loaning the player) must agree on what player will be shared. If the 5th player shows up, the borrowed player is no longer needed and should then leave the game.
5. Players should attend the school they are playing for OR support that parish. (We need to be aware of any player that does not attend the school but is on the team.)
