

TESC Academic Scholarship Overview and Checklist

Team Ellsworth Spouses' Club offers scholarships to military and civilian dependents pursuing studies at an accredited college or university during the 2022-2023 academic year. This includes spouses, high school seniors, recent high school graduates, as well as students in their second, third, or fourth year of study. Funds may be used for community college, undergraduate, graduate, or doctoral studies. Students attending a service academy, on a full-ride scholarship, or using 100% of an active-duty GI Bill are not eligible. Partial scholarships, or partial use of a GI Bill is authorized. Our intent with this opportunity is to provide an opportunity that supports the education of military dependents and recognizes their sacrifices.
