Nulhegan Band of the Coosuk-Apemauk Nation

Chief
Donald Stevens

Vermont Youth Conservation Corps

Executive Director
Beck Knauth

Stewardship by VYCC.

and or materials that support Abenaki’s long history and cultural traditions from lands currently owned and

We look forward to a mutually beneficial relationship that allows Abenaki people to gather food, medicine, and where people are on the land, so we can coordinate this activity with our programs and other visions in

5. For safety reasons, Abenaki people wishing to hunt do need to obtain permission. This helps us know the Vermont Abenaki Tribe's covenant that their use of VYCC lands will comply with all applicable laws.

No species on Federal or State Endangered, Threatened or Special of Special concern lists may be collected on VYCC lands. Lists should be checked before each harvest to ensure that those species are the year following each harvest.

1. All Gathering shall occur in a sustainable manner that ensures populations are the same size or larger

VYCC asks that use small occur within the following parameters:

VYCC values indigenous practices and welcomes input and collaboration with Abenaki people on the

VYCC lands.

All Gathering shall occur in a sustainable manner that ensures populations are the same size or larger

VYCC asks that use small occur within the following parameters:

VYCC values indigenous practices and welcomes input and collaboration with Abenaki people on the

VYCC lands.

Abenaki Land Use Statement