

PUREBLOOD ANNOUNCES NEW HOLIDAY SINGLE

“SANTA DON’T CRY” December 12, 2025 via Hola Entertainment

PUREBLOOD delivers a powerful new holiday release with “Santa Don’t Cry,” arriving December 12, 2025 — a heartfelt, cinematic twist on the traditional Christmas song. Blending emotion, atmosphere, and PUREBLOOD’s signature edge, the track explores the warmth, longing, and memories that surface during the holiday season.

“Santa Don’t Cry” layers bright melodies with emotional storytelling, creating a winter anthem that resonates beyond the holidays. The song captures the feeling of holding on to someone’s spirit even when they’re gone — a theme that threads through the quiet corners of the season.

“It’s about love, loss, and the things we keep alive,” the band shared.

With shimmering instrumentation and a soaring chorus, the single invites listeners into a world where nostalgia and punk sensibility meet.

PUREBLOOD continues their cinematic rollout, following the success of “Consequences” with a visual and emotional shift perfect for winter. Fans can expect a full social and streaming push, complete with Reels, Shorts, and a themed Spotify Canvas.

RELEASE DETAILS

Song: Santa Don’t Cry

Artist: PUREBLOOD

Release Date: December 12, 2025

Label: Hola Entertainment, Inc.

Video Premiere:
YouTube

Streaming: All major platforms

This holiday release marks the next chapter in PUREBLOOD’s upward momentum as they close out 2025 with something warm, nostalgic, and deeply human.

Hola Entertainment, Inc.
hola@holaent.com