

To whom it may concern,

I have had the pleasure of knowing Melissa Lopez for the past 6 years. Melissa is a strong, resilient, and compassionate professional whose expertise with hurting children is quite extraordinary. I have had the pleasure of witnessing her calm and engaging demeanor in the midst of some difficult conversations that were both welcoming and encouraging.

Melissa is a genuine advocate for the hurting and has the wonderful gift of empathy and encouragement that removes communication barriers and engenders free and open dialogue about difficult life issues. She is competent, reliable and hardworking and would be of great benefit to any company, agency or community.

G. Nadine Davis
Author and Founder
The Women Who Overcome Ministry