Life affords no higher pleasure than that of surmounting difficulties, passing from one step of success to another, forming new wishes and seeing them gratified.

Welcome from the Vice-Chancellor

On behalf of everyone at the University of Wolverhampton, it gives me great pleasure to welcome you to today's graduation ceremony in partnership with SCOPE.

We are very proud of every one of you and are pleased to be celebrating this special occasion in Hong Kong with you, your family and friends.

Your success is down to your hard work and determination but there are many people who have helped you complete your academic journey. Your lecturers and support staff as well as your peers, friends and family have all played their part in ensuring you achieve your goal.

The University of Wolverhampton is a truly global institution, with an outstanding reputation for producing graduates with the skills that are highly valued by employers. I am proud of the University's strong relationship with SCOPE, which has a track record of meeting the needs of industry through its built environment and law education and training programmes.

We are the University of Opportunity – providing education to enhance social mobility, driving economic regeneration, and improving the lives of individuals in the communities we have operated in for almost 200 years. You now have many exciting opportunities in front of you, armed with the knowledge and experience for employment, further study or to set up your own business.

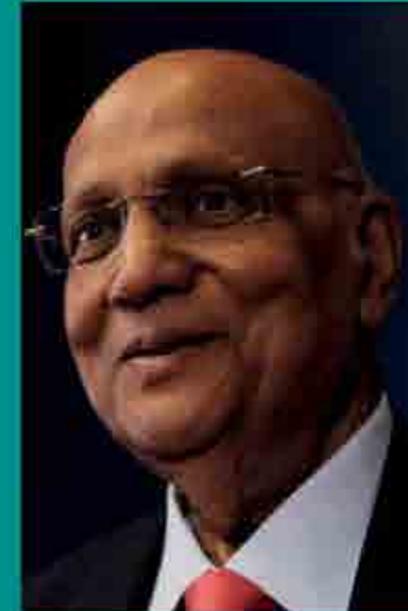

I hope that you will look back on your time with the University with fond memories. As graduates the story doesn't end here - the Hong Kong

Alumni Association is extremely active and ever expanding and I hope you continue to maintain the close links you have built up with us over the last few years.

Education is the corner stone of any strong society, and provides the individual with opportunities. It is now up to you to take your opportunity and shape your future career. Today is about your achievement and I hope you cherish your education and your time with the University and SCOPE.

It is a great privilege to be able to celebrate this special occasion with you, your family and friends. Enjoy this moment and I wish you every success in the future.

Congratulations from the Chancellor of the University of Wolverhampton

It is a pleasure to welcome you to this University of Wolverhampton graduation ceremony in Hong Kong, in partnership with SCOPE. Today is a special occasion and I would like to congratulate you all on your achievements.

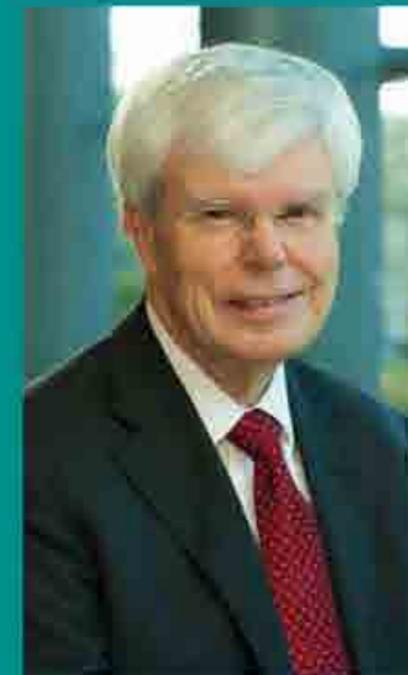

I am delighted to welcome the many people who have shared and supported your journey to be here today. Your friends and family will have witnessed the challenges you have faced and overcome, and will share our pride as you collect your awards. We must also thank the lecturers and University support staff for their hard work and dedication, ensuring an excellent student experience.

Today you are joining an international family of graduates, and you will benefit from the University's global reputation and relationships. As you take the next steps in your career, I hope you will maintain close links with the University and the friends you have made here.

I wish you all every success and happiness for the future.

The Rt Hon. Lord Paul of Marylebone, PC

An appreciation from the Chair of the Board of Governors

On behalf of the University's Board of Governors, I would like to congratulate everyone receiving their awards in Hong Kong today.

Higher education has the power to transform people's life chances, enhance their skills and build lifelong networks. I hope you have enjoyed your time studying with the University of Wolverhampton and SCOPE, and I am sure the experiences you have gained will provide an excellent foundation for the next stage of your careers.

The University of Wolverhampton has a long history of creating opportunities for people, and we look forward to hearing about your successes as an alumnus of our University.

We are delighted to celebrate your individual achievements, and whether you are pursuing further study or entering employment, we wish you the best of luck for the future.

Dr Simon Walford

VICTORIA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

Mission

Victoria University College aims to be the leading university for students to provide them an excellent knowledge in practice-based education. As the first private university in Myanmar, VUC needs to collaborate with universities all over the world in order to exchange knowledge where students of VUC must enjoy learning to enjoy success.

Vision

We will be a dynamic, creative and entrepreneurial university, rooted in our region, with strong and sustainable national and international connections. We aim to be the largest, most professional university in Myanmar.

Our students will be contributors to a vibrant academic community, which equips them for employment, individual fulfillment and lifelong learning.

Our staff will be innovative, enterprising and professionally outstanding individuals, focused on enabling our students to realize their ambitions, and to drive the continuing success of the university.

Our university will be the first choice for students, employers, professional bodies, civic organizations and other partners and will engage with them creatively and effectively to meet their needs.

Our communities will be shaped by the demonstrable impact we and our graduates have in their intellectual, social, cultural and economic development.

Message from the Principal of Victoria University College

Welcome to Victoria University College. We strive to create a disciplined yet engaging learning environment for all Victoria University Students, where they can thrive and develop into responsible young adults.

We will do everything possible to provide:

- The individual support students need to achieve and progress
- High quality teaching with qualified, knowledgeable and experienced staff
- Wide range of facilities
- An environment where students feel safe, happy and healthy
- A valuable range of out of classroom activities to suit all interests

We know that you will have your dreams and ambitions, and it is a real privilege to work with you to help you realize these.

I look forward to welcoming you to the College and to working with you to ensure you leave as successful adults able to meet future challenges with confidence.
