List any leadership experience you have had:

Give a brief testimony as to your Christian experience:

How do you determine what is appropriate for your life-style as a Christian? How is this reflected in your choices (amusements, habits and other activities)?

Why do you want to be a CILT?

Cedarbrook Camp Staff and CILTs are asked to manifest the following traits of character:

- |    |                                      |    |                              |
|----|--------------------------------------|----|------------------------------|
| a. | Knows Christ as personal Savior      | f. | Works well as a group member |
| b. | Exhibits a vital Christian testimony | g. | Shows a willingness to learn |
| c. | Life reflects good moral character   | h. | Is industrious               |
| d. | Demonstrates leadership ability      | i. | Is dependable                |
| e. | Assumes responsibility               | j. | Is adaptable                 |

I have read the above list of characteristics and would like to affirm my desire to be that kind of person and staff member. I realize that this is not asking for perfection but is assuming a process. With God's help I want to become all He would have me to be.
