HAPPY SECOND COMING OF CHRIST

On this second Sunday of Advent, in which we prepare to celebrate the Nativity of our Lord, we have heard with joy the message that calls us to reaffirm ourselves in our hope. During this time, we prepare ourselves in this virtue, which allows us to strengthen our relationship with God and our brothers through faith. This is a special sign that we have been baptized not only with water but with the Holy Spirit, as announced by the evangelist Saint Mark (Mk 1:1-8).

In reality, we are invited in this liturgical season to prepare the way: "Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths" (Mk 1:3) sustained in the hope that we can always approach the source of mercy. In this regard, we find a means to fulfill the invitation that the Lord gives to us through the prophet Isaiah: "Comfort, comfort my people, says your God" (Is 40:1). Let us be attentive to the teachings of our beloved Church, which, speaking about Christian hope, tells us:

The first essential setting for learning hope is prayer. When no one listens to me anymore, God still listens to me. When I can no longer talk to anyone or call upon anyone, I can always talk to God. When there is no longer anyone to help me deal with a need or expectation that goes beyond the human capacity for hope, he can help me. When I have been plunged into complete solitude ...; if I pray, I am never totally alone (Spe Salvi n.32).

This week, we will celebrate two great mysteries in our faith: first, the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin Mary; and second, the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. These are special moments to strengthen ourselves in prayer and learn from the one whom the Church calls "Our life, our sweetness, and our hope." Because of her "yes," God became flesh; he became one of us and pitched his tent among us. With our "yes," we will have the possibility of being signs of hope for the world since life in Christ is the light of our life.

AN ADVENT TREE BLESSING

Lord our God, we praise you for the light of creation: the sun, the moon, and the stars of the night.
We praise you for the light of Israel: the Law, and the prophets, and the wisdom of the Scriptures.
We praise you for Jesus Christ, your Son: he is Emmanuel, God-with-us, the Prince of Peace, who fills us with the wonder of your love.
Lord God, let your blessing come upon us as we light this tree.
May the light and cheer it gives be a sign of the joy that fills our hearts. May all who delight in this tree come to the knowledge and joy of salvation.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

The eight Beatitudes found in St. Matthew's Gospel express the perfection of Christian living. The number eight mystically signals the culmination of heavenly blessings. Christ calls blessed those who are clean of heart. And he promises them the ultimate reward that integrity of heart brings: Blessed are the clean of heart for they shall see God (Mt 5:8). While the Beatitudes make us happy on earth, they attain their perfect expression in heaven. For now, we see God through the eyes of faith.

Mary's Immaculate Conception introduces the world to the Beatitudes that her Son would announce during his Sermon on the Mount (Mt 5:3-10). Because Mary has been preserved from all stain of sin, she possesses the cleanest heart of any human being. She appears all beautiful, as an ancient Latin hymn sings: Tota pulchra es, O Maria! The Immaculate Conception Put Mary in as full a possession of the Beatitudes as was compatible with her life here below.

The Litany of Loreto, which provides a time-honored way of celebrating Mary's graces, recalls these eight Beatitudes: Gate of Heaven, Cause of our joy, Singular vessel of devotion, Mirror of justice, Virgin most merciful, Mother undefiled, Vessel of honor, Virgin most faithful. Because she who is Mother of the Church preeminently possesses these beatifying gifts, every member can expect to share in them.

Reflection based on Luke 1:26-38
 Father Romanus Cessario, O.P.

Heavenly Father, make me rejoice in the Immaculate Conception of your Son's Mother. Give me a share in her plenitude of grace so that I may rejoice with all the saints who have inherited the Kingdom of heaven. Immaculate Mary, pray for us. Magnificat: Advent, 2020

BAMBINELLI SUNDAY

Bambinelli Sunday is a beautiful tradition that was started by Pope St. John Paul II. Bambinelli Sunday is celebrated the third weekend of Advent, on Gaudete Sunday. Bring your baby Jesus figures next weekend to be blessed during all the Masses in the Church.

BLESSING OF THE ADVENT WREATH PRAYER

Lord God,
 Your church joyfully awaits the coming of its Savior,
 who enlightens our hearts,
 and dispels the darkness of ignorance and sin,
 pour forth your blessings upon us,
 as we light the candles of this wreath;
 may their light reflect the splendor of Christ,
 who is Lord, for ever and ever. Amen

CONSOLIDADOS EN LA ESPERANZA

En este segundo domingo de adviento, en el que nos preparamos para la celebración de la Navidad, hemos escuchado con alegría un mensaje que nos llama a reafirmarnos en la esperanza. Lo propio de este tiempo es fortalecernos en esta virtud, que nos permite estar activos en la fe para fortalecer nuestra relación con Dios y los hermanos, este es un signo especial de que hemos sido bautizados no sólo con agua, sino con el Espíritu Santo, como lo ha anunciado el evangelio que meditamos en este día (Mc 1, 1-8). En esta realidad, se nos invita en este tiempo litúrgico, a preparar el camino: “preparen el camino del Señor, enderecen sus senderos” (Mc 1,3) sostenidos en la esperanza siempre podemos acercarnos a la fuente de la misericordia. En este propósito encontramos un medio para hacer realidad la invitación que nos hace el Señor por medio del profeta Isaías: “Consuelen, consuelen a mi pueblo” (Is 40,1). Les invito a que prestemos atención a las enseñanzas de nuestra amada Iglesia, que hablando sobre la esperanza cristiana nos dice:

Un lugar primero y esencial de aprendizaje de la esperanza es la oración. Cuando ya nadie me escucha, Dios todavía me escucha. Cuando ya no puedo hablar con ninguno, ni invocar a nadie, siempre puedo hablar con Dios. Si ya no hay nadie que pueda ayudarme —cuando se trata de una necesidad o de una expectativa que supera la capacidad humana de esperar—, Él puede ayudarme.

Si me veo relegado a la extrema soledad...; el que reza nunca está totalmente solo. (Spe Salvi n.32)

Durante esta semana celebraremos dos grandes misterios en nuestra fe, la Inmaculada Concepción de la Virgen María y su advocación de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. Son momentos especiales para fortalecernos en la oración y aprender de aquella a quien la Iglesia llama “Vida, dulzura y esperanza nuestra”, por su “sí” Dios se hizo carne, se hizo uno de nosotros, plantó su tienda entre nosotros. Con nuestro “sí” tendremos la posibilidad de ser signos de esperanza para el mundo, pues la vida en Cristo es la luminaria de nuestra vida.

Fr. Duber

INMACULADA CONCEPCIÓN

Las ocho Bienaventuranzas que se encuentran en el Evangelio de San Mateo expresan la perfección de la vida cristiana. El número ocho señala místicamente la culminación de las bendiciones celestiales. Cristo llama bienaventurados a los limpios de corazón. Y les promete la máxima recompensa que trae la integridad de corazón: Bienaventurados los limpios de corazón porque ellos verán a Dios (Mt 5: 8). Mientras que las Bienaventuranzas nos hacen felices en la tierra, alcanzan su perfecta expresión en el cielo. Por ahora, vemos a Dios a través de los ojos de la fe.

La Inmaculada Concepción de María presenta al mundo las Bienaventuranzas que su Hijo anunciaría durante su Sermón de la Montaña (Mt 5, 3-10). Debido a que María ha sido preservada de toda mancha de pecado, posee el corazón más limpio de cualquier ser humano. Parece toda hermosa, como canta un antiguo himno latino: Tota pulchra es, Oh Maria! La Inmaculada Concepción Ponga a María en posesión de las Bienaventuranzas tanto como sea compatible con su vida aquí abajo.

La Letanía de Loreto, que ofrece una forma tradicional de celebrar las gracias de María, recuerda estas ocho Bienaventuranzas: Puerta del Cielo, Causa de nuestra alegría, Vaso singular de devoción, Espejo de justicia, Virgen misericordiosa, Madre inmaculada, Vaso de honor. Virgen fiel. Debido a que la Madre de la Iglesia posee de manera preeminente estos dones de beatificación, todos los miembros pueden esperar compartirlos.

Reflexión basada en Lucas 1: 26-38

Padre Romanus Cessario, O.P.

Padre celestial, haz que me regocije en la Inmaculada Concepción de la Madre de tu Hijo. Dame una participación en su plenitud de gracia para que pueda regocijarme con todos los santos que han heredado el Reino de los cielos. Nuestra Señora de Loreto, ruega por nosotros. Magnificat: Adviento, 2020
