FORMED

FORMED.org invites everyone to join them for a Lent to Remember specials. One can tune in to their programs called Symbolon and Forgiven, where one can explore the ways God reaches out to each of us with mercy. It will take us to Christ's suffering on the cross in the Paschal Mystery and his perpetual reception of His people in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. A Lent to Remember communicates God's invitation to come and experience God's indescribable love this Lenten season.

Also, Formed welcomes everyone to God's love by watching short, daily videos from Scripture scholar Dr. Tim Gray. These will serve as awakening reflections during Lent. The Office of Religious Education urges everyone in the parish to see what Formed offers. Please follow the following steps to sign up: 1) Google Formed.org <https://signup.formed.org/> 2) Click on "I belong to the Parish Organization" and type 1311 Robinson Dr. Haines City 33845 3) Type your name 4) Type your e-mail address. At this point, the program will appear on your screen, and you can start navigating the page. The next time you open the page, go to Formed.org; just sign in with your e-mail address, and that's it. Enjoy!

PRAYER TO SAINT JOSEPH

Remember, O most chaste spouse of the Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who implored your help and sought your intercession was left unassisted.

Full of confidence in your power, I fly unto you and beg your protection.

Despise not O Guardian of the Redeemer my humble supplication, but in your bounty, hear and answer me.

*Heart of Jesus, I adore Thee!
Heart of Mary, I implore Thee!
Heart of Joseph, pure and just!
In these three hearts, I place my trust! Amen.*

"FOR THIS PURPOSE, I HAVE COME"

In Jesus' time, finding a doctor for healing was uncommon. Sometimes, the only thing that people could do for a sick person was to be good company and offer them some homemade medicines while waiting until they got well or died. They did not have too many options. The average lifespan was forty years. Many of these afflictions were attributed to their spiritual life or the sins of their ancestors. The disciples asked him, "Lord, who sinned, his parents or this man that he was born blind?" (Jn 9:2). Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned, but this happened so that you can see the glory of God" (Jn 9:3).

Today's Gospel tells us about Peter's mother-in-law (Mk 1:29-39), who was ill and could not do anything but be in bed. Visiting Capernaum some years ago with a group from our parish was an enjoyable experience. The synagogue was a short distance from Peter's home, which was right outside of the synagogue. After the Sabbath prayer, Jesus needed to receive the invitation to enter Peter's house to perform the miracle. Those who call upon Jesus in their lives and open their lives to faith can see the glory of God. It is important for us to ask him to come into our lives, family, country, and world. A simple invitation, a couple of steps, is the beginning to receive his love and mercy in us. Jesus does not reject or shy away from any invitation we send him. He is attentive, but we must take the initiative to talk to him to express our concerns and sufferings. This is precisely what we do when we pray.

This passage does not end in one miracle; many of the sick went to see him, and he also healed them. Jesus, who healed so many people one evening at Capernaum, is ready to cure you also at every Mass. The most significant time to heal is when you receive Jesus in Holy Communion. During those precious minutes when you and Jesus are united, ask him in faith, especially for the healing you need, and adore and praise him for all he has done for you.

Are you ready to see the glory of God in the next celebration of the Eucharist in which you are participating?

Happy Sunday!

Fr. Alfonso Cely
Pastor

CONSECRATION OF ST. JOSEPH

Celebrating 150 years of the declaration of St. Joseph, a patron of the Catholic Church, by Pope Pious IX; Pope Francis has dedicated this year of 2021 to St. Joseph.

We invite you to start a consecration to St. Joseph starting February 15 through March 19. To be part of this journey you will need to purchase the exercise book "The Consecration of St. Joseph: The Wonders of our Spiritual Father" which can be ordered from our website: www.stannhc.com. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Richard & Muriel Pelletier via E-mail at rpelletier10@gmail.com St. Joseph pray for us!

OUR LADY OF LOURDES

On February 11, 1858, a beautiful woman appeared to Bernadette Soubirous in a remote stone grotto outside Lourdes, France. When asked her name, she replied, "I am the Immaculate Conception." In the spot where she requested a chapel, a spring bubbled forth. Since that time, seventy officially recognized cures and hundreds of "unofficial" healings had been reported at Lourdes. "Mary is the one who believed and, from her womb, rivers of living water have flowed forth to irrigate human history. The spring that Mary pointed out to Bernadette here in Lourdes is the humble sign of this spiritual reality. From her believing heart, from her maternal heart, flows living water which purifies and heals" (Pope Benedict XVI). Magnificat: Feb. 2021

ST. OF THE WEEK: ST. SCHOLASTICA

What we know of the life of Scholastica is drawn from The Dialogues, Gregory the Great's biography of her brother, Benedict, the founder of Western Monasticism. Born of a noble Roman family in Nursia in Umbria, Italy, Scholastica was dedicated to God at a young age. She led a community of virgins at Plombariola, not far from Monte Cassino, the monastery Benedict had founded. She visited her brother once a year, meeting for prayer and conversation just outside the monastery walls. It was shortly after one of these meetings, in the year 542, that Benedict, looking out from the monastery, saw his sister's soul ascend to heaven like a dove.

ASH WEDNESDAY: FEBRUARY 17, 2021

Each Lent begins with a stirring call to repentance and a reminder of our mortality. But there is a great grace in this, for in Christ we do not have to wonder, "Where is God?" Because Jesus embraced our weak and mortal nature, we can receive what is his: We "become the very righteousness of God." We need not fear asking, "A clean heart create for me, O God," for the Father "who is hidden" wants to give us "the joy of our salvation." When we turn to the Lord, it is always "an acceptable time," it is always "the day of salvation."

RECOGNIZING THE HEALER

To come to know God—the true God—means to receive hope. The example of a saint of our time can help us understand what it means. At the age of nine, Josephine Bakhita was kidnapped by slave-traders, beaten till she bled, and sold five times in the slave-markets of Sudan. Eventually, she found herself working as a slave for the mother and the wife of a general, and there she was flogged every day till she bled.... Finally, in 1882, she was bought by an Italian merchant for the Italian consul Calisto Legnani, who returned to Italy.... Here, after the terrifying masters who had owned her up to that point, Bakhita came to know a totally different kind of "master"—in Venetian dialect, which she was now learning, she used the name paron for the living God, the God of Jesus Christ. Up to that time, she had known only masters who despised and maltreated her or at best considered her a useful slave. Now, however, she heard that there is a paron above all masters, the Lord of all lords and that this Lord is good, goodness in person. She came to know that this Lord even knew her, that he had created her—that he actually loved her. She too was loved, and by none other than the supreme Paron, before whom all other masters are themselves no more than lowly servants. She was known and loved, and she was awaited. What is more, this master had himself accepted the destiny of being flogged, and now he was waiting for her at the Father's right hand. Now she had hope—no longer simply the modest hope of finding masters who would be less cruel, but the great hope: "I am definitively loved and whatever happens to me—I am awaited by this Love. And so my life is good." Through the knowledge of this hope, she was redeemed, no longer a slave but a free child of God. She understood what Paul meant when he reminded the Ephesians that previously they were without hope and without God in the world—without hope because without God....

On December 8, 1896, she took her vows in the Congregation of the Canossian Sisters, and from that time onwards...she made several journeys around Italy in order to promote the missions: the liberation that she had received through her encounter with the God of Jesus Christ, she felt she had to extend, it had to be handed on to others, to the greatest possible number of people. The hope born in her she could not keep to herself; this hope had to reach many, to reach everybody.

WHAT'S UP IN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION?

The videotape recording of the five-week series "Penance for Your Thoughts" project initiated by the Office of Religious Education/Catechetical Ministry for this year's observance of Lent is almost entirely done as of this issue of the Church Bulletin. It is fitting to thank and acknowledge beforehand the individuals and groups who made this project easy to undertake and accomplish. First on the list is our indefatigable and energetic pastor, Fr. Alfonso Cely. He enthusiastically approved this initiative, and of course, the support of the Parish Office staff, Sevastian Flores, Melissa Altamirano, Grace Dizon, Alana Lev, and our very own Tammy Higgins for sharing their recorded voices for each Sunday of Lent. Worthy of mention are the kinder and elementary kids who rendered an opening song for Ash Wednesday, namely Madelin and Isabella Menendez, Vivian and Mary Pagano, Javier Morales, Aledia Coyt, and Alexiel Alvarez. Our lectors were a mix of students, catechists, and parents: Odalys Valentin, Elsa Lara, Silvia Gallardo, Julissa Cotto, Itzamal Lara, Maylen Morales, Aleida Coyt, Yahir Villegas, Javier Morales, and Alexiel Alvarez. Shown here are some of the Lenten Project screenshorts: Group of students doing the opening song. Another group of students reading the Psalm for Ash Wednesday; Personal Reflection of Linda Dizon; and Personal Reflection of Tammy Higgins.

It's coming! The OCA 2021 kick-off will be the weekend of February 13 & 14. We will hear from Bishop John Noonan about all the wonderful things that OCA achieves and makes possible. This year our goal amount is $123,749.00.

Remember, funds from our OCA commitment go to help our Seminarians with their tuition, the Retired Religious for their care, Catholic Schools, on-going Parish Ministerial needs and classes, Safe Environment, Catholic Charities that fund Food Banks and Medical clinics, helping Migrants acclimate to their new surroundings, providing housing and job training to the needy, and our Sister Diocese: San Juan de la Maguana in the Dominican Republic with a brand new Science Lab last year. And, so much more!

I know that you will again rise to the challenge because Saint Ann and its people will always make it happen! Thank you.

"PARA ESTE FIN, HE VENIDO"

En la época de Jesús, era poco común encontrar un médico para sanar. A veces, lo único que la gente podía hacer por una persona enferma era ser buena compañía y ofrecerle algunas medicinas caseras mientras esperaba hasta que se recuperara o muriera. No tenían demasiadas opciones. La esperanza de vida media fue de cuarenta años. Muchas de estas aflicciones se atribuyeron a su vida espiritual o los pecados de sus antepasados. Los discípulos le preguntaron: "Señor, ¿quién pecó, sus padres o este hombre que nació ciego?" (Juan 9: 2).

Jesús respondió: "Ni este hombre ni sus padres pecaron, pero esto sucedió para que veas la gloria de Dios" (Juan 9, 3). El evangelio de hoy nos habla de la suegra de Pedro (Marcos 1: 29-39), que estaba enferma y no podía hacer nada más que estar en la cama. Visitar Cafarnaum hace algunos años con un grupo de nuestra parroquia fue una experiencia agradable. La sinagoga estaba a poca distancia de la casa de Pedro, que estaba justo afuera de la sinagoga. Después de la oración del sábado, Jesús necesitaba recibir la invitación para entrar en la casa de Pedro para realizar el milagro. Aquellos que invocan a Jesús en sus vidas y abren sus vidas a la fe pueden ver la gloria de Dios. Es importante para nosotros pedirle que venga a nuestras vidas, familia, país y mundo. Una simple invitación, un par de pasos, es el comienzo para recibir su amor y misericordia en nosotros. Jesús no rechaza ni rehuye ninguna invitación que le enviemos. Está atento, pero debemos tomar la iniciativa de hablar con él para expresar nuestras preocupaciones y sufrimientos. Esto es precisamente lo que hacemos cuando oramos.

Este pasaje no termina en un milagro; muchos de los enfermos fueron a verlo y él también los curó. Jesús, que curó a tantas personas una noche en Cafarnaum, está listo para curarte también en cada Misa. El momento más significativo para sanar es cuando recibes a Jesús en la Sagrada Comunión. Durante esos preciosos minutos en los que tú y Jesús están unidos, pregúntale con fe, especialmente por la curación que necesitas, y adóralo y alábalo por todo lo que ha hecho por ti.

¿Estás preparado para ver la gloria de Dios en la próxima celebración eucarística en la que estás participando?

¡Feliz domingo!

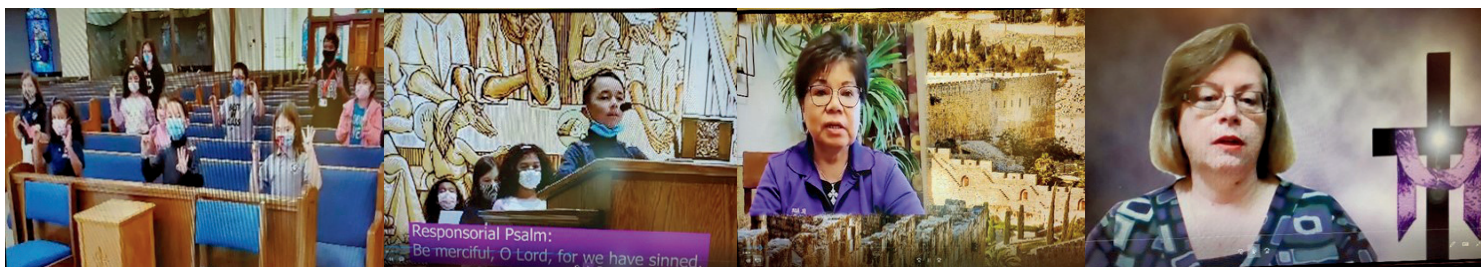

P. Alfonso Cely
Pastor

¿QUÉ HAY DE NUEVO EN LA EDUCACIÓN RELIGIOSA?

La grabación en video de la serie de 5 semanas del proyecto "Penitencia por sus Pensamientos" iniciado por la Oficina de Educación Religiosa / Ministerio Catequético para la observancia de la Cuaresma de este año está casi completamente terminada a partir de este número del Boletín Dominical de la Iglesia. Es justo agradecer y reconocer de antemano a las personas y grupos que hicieron que este proyecto fuera fácil de emprender y realizar. Primero en la lista está nuestro pastor infatigable y enérgico, el P. Alfonso Cely, quien dio su aprobación con entusiasmo a esta iniciativa, y por supuesto el apoyo del personal de la Oficina Parroquial; Sevastian Flores, Melissa Altamirano, Grace Dizon, Alana Lev y nuestra propia Tammy Higgins por compartir sus voces grabadas para cada domingo de Cuaresma. Son dignos de mención los niños de kindergarten y primaria que interpretaron una canción de apertura para el Miércoles de Ceniza a saber: Madelin e Isabella Menéndez, Vivian y Mary Pagano, Javier Morales, Aledia Coyt y Alexiel Alvarez; Nuestros lectores fueron una mezcla de estudiantes, catequistas y padres: Odalys Valentin, Elsa Lara, Silvia Gallardo, Julissa Cotto, Itzamal Lara, Maylen Morales, Aleida Coyt, Yahir Villegas, Javier Morales. Alexiel Alvarez.

Aquí se muestran algunas de las capturas de pantalla del Proyecto de Cuaresma:

ORACION A SAN JOSÉ

Recuerda, casto esposo de la Virgen María, que nunca se supo que alguien que imploró tu ayuda y buscó tu intercesión se quedó sin ayuda.

Lleno de confianza en tu poder, vuelo hacia ti y pido tu protección.

No desprecies, oh Guardián del Redentor, mi humilde súplica, pero en tu bondad, escúchame y respóndeme. Corazón de Jesús, ¡te adoro!

Corazón de María, ¡te lo suplico!

¡Corazón de José, puro y justo!

¡En estos tres corazones, pongo mi confianza!

Amén.

LAS DECLARACIONES DE DONACIONES

Gracias a todos nuestros feligreses que pudieron ayudar durante el año fiscal 2020. Durante este tiempo de prueba, sus generosas donaciones monetarias pudieron mantener nuestra St. Ann abierta y funcionando sin problemas. Nuevamente, gracias por todos sus regalos.

Las declaraciones de donación de impuestos ahora están disponibles en la oficina de la iglesia.

NUEVAS LETRAS PARA EL LETRERO

Probablemente haya notado el nuevo letrero al final de Robinson Drive. Pero, ¿se dio cuenta de que tenemos letras que se pueden colocar en la parte inferior para informarnos sobre los próximos eventos? No olvide revisarlo, ya que será un recordatorio de lo que sucederá en las próximas semanas, especialmente durante la Cuaresma.

CONSAGRACIÓN A SAN JOSÉ
Inicia 15 de Febrero

Al cumplirse 150 años de la declaración de San José como patrono de la Iglesia, por Pío IX; el Papa Francisco ha dedicado este año a San José; con el motivo de que la Iglesia implore su protección e imite sus virtudes.

Por tal razón; te invitamos a que te acerques y conozcas más sobre este Santo Hombre, que Dios tuvo a bien elegir y que tan poco conocido es.

Consagra tu vida y tu familia; poniéndola bajo la protección y el cuidado de San José, protector de las familias.

NUESTRA SEÑORA DE LOURDES

El 11 de febrero de 1858, una hermosa mujer se le apareció a Bernadette Soubirous en una remota gruta de piedra en las afueras de Lourdes, Francia. Cuando se le preguntó su nombre, ella respondió: "Soy la Inmaculada Concepción". En el lugar donde pidió una capilla, brotó un manantial. Desde entonces, se han informado en Lourdes setenta curas reconocidas oficialmente y cientos de curaciones "no oficiales". "María es la que creyó y desde su seno han brotado ríos de agua viva para irrigar la historia humana. El manantial que María le señaló a Bernardita aquí en Lourdes es el humilde signo de esta realidad espiritual. De su corazón creyente, de su corazón material, fluye agua viva que purifica y cura."

(Papa Benedicto XVI). Magnificat: febrero de 2021

¡OCA 2021!

¡Está viniendo! El inicio de OCA 2021 será el fin de semana del 13 y 14 de febrero. Escucharemos al obispo John Noonan sobre todas las cosas maravillosas que OCA logra y hace posibles. Este año nuestro meta objetivo es $123,749.00.

Recuerde, los fondos de nuestro compromiso de OCA van para ayudar a nuestros seminaristas con su matrícula, los religiosos jubilados para su cuidado, escuelas católicas, necesidades y clases ministeriales parroquiales en curso, ambiente seguro, organizaciones benéficas católicas que financian bancos de alimentos y clínicas médicas, ayudando a los migrantes. aclimatarse a su nuevo entorno, proporcionando vivienda y capacitación laboral a los necesitados, y nuestra Diócesis Hermana: San Juan de la Maguana en la República Dominicana con un Laboratorio de Ciencias completamente nuevo el año pasado.

¡Y mucho más! ¡Sé que volverás a estar a la altura del desafío porque Saint Ann y su gente siempre lo harán posible! Gracias.
