Jesus said to Nicodemus: "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life."

John 3:14,15

Jesús dijo a Nicodemo: "Así como Moisés levantó la serpiente en el desierto, así tiene que ser levantado el Hijo del hombre, para que todo el que crea en él tenga vida eterna."

FORMED

FORMED.org invites everyone to join them for a Lent to Remember specials. One can tune in to their programs called Symbolon and Forgiven, where one can explore the ways God reaches out to each of us with mercy. It will take us to Christ's suffering on the cross in the Paschal Mystery and his perpetual reception of His people in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. A Lent to Remember communicates God's invitation to come and experience God's indescribable love this Lenten season.

Also, FORMED welcomes everyone to God's love by watching short, daily videos from Scripture scholar Dr. Tim Gray. These will serve as awakening reflections during Lent. The Office of Religious Education urges everyone in the parish to see what FORMED offers. Please follow the following steps to sign up: 1) Google FORMED.org <https://signup.formed.org/> 2) Click on "I belong to the Parish Organization" and type 1311 Robinson Dr. Haines City 33845 3) Type your name 4) Type your e-mail address. At this point, the program will appear on your screen, and you can start navigating the page. The next time you open the page, go to Formed.org; just sign in with your e-mail address, and that's it. PRAYER TO SAINT JOSEPH

Remember, O most chaste spouse of the Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who implored your help and sought your intercession was left unassisted.

Full of confidence in your power, I fly unto you and beg your protection.

Despise not O Guardian of the Redeemer my humble supplication, but in your bounty, hear and answer me.

*Heart of Jesus, I adore Thee!
Heart of Mary, I implore Thee!
Heart of Joseph, pure and just!
In these three hearts, I place my trust! Amen.*

CHOSEN BY GOD

On this Fourth Sunday of Lent, our community can witness the scrutiny made of elects to receive their Christian Initiation in the solemn celebration of Easter. The scrutinies occur on the 3rd, 4th, and 5th Sundays of Lent and are intended to lead those preparing for the sacraments to recognize what is weak in their hearts and strengthen what is good. Thus, the Ritual says that "These should help the total conversion of the elect and deepen their resolve to remain closely united to Christ and to continue with greater determination in their effort to love God above all things" (RCIA n.141).

It is an ever-present process in our Christian life. We are always on the path of conversion and the season of Lent highlights this necessary attitude as we make a pilgrimage towards the eternal Kingdom. On this day, we must be aware that the liturgical assembly has a role of relevant importance since it is where the elects are instructed in how the faithful of our Church seek to adapt their gaze, desires, and actions to God's will. The community, which knows the arduous task of witnessing to which the elects are bound, prays for them to receive the help of God that allows them to persevere and share the gifts they will receive by professing their faith.

The Word we hear today has these special signs of conversion which enable us to reinforce our own journey of conversion:

1. God, who knows our hearts, is who chooses us: "Man sees the appearance, but the Lord looks into the hearts" (1 Samuel 16:7).
2. We are called to assume a new life: "You were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord" (Ephesians 5:8).
3. Recognizing the Lord, we abandon ourselves in his designs: "He said, I do believe, Lord, and he worshiped him" (John 9:38).

In prayer, let us be ready for the Lord to continue strengthening our community in the gift of baptism, particularly this week when we celebrate the Solemnity of Saint Joseph and the consecration of so many people who have prepared themselves in meditation and prayer, so that it lets us enjoy his grace and protection.

Joseph is venerated as Saint Joseph in the Catholic Church, Orthodox Church, Oriental Orthodox Church, Anglicanism, and Lutheranism. In Catholic traditions, Joseph is regarded as the patron saint of workers and is associated with various feast days. The month of March is dedicated to Saint Joseph. Pope Pius IX declared him to be both the patron and the protector of the Catholic Church, in addition to his patronages of the sick and of a happy death, due to the belief that he died in the presence of Jesus and Mary. Joseph has become patron of various dioceses and places.

LENT 2021 - PRAY

We as Catholics are asked to pray more during Lent. It doesn't matter if you are praying for something you need or would like to have, or if you are praying to thank God for something you received or something good that has happened in your life. Just pray. And then pray some more.

O gracious Master, infuse in our hearts the spotless light of Your Divine Wisdom and open the eyes of our mind that we may understand the teachings of Your Gospel. Instill in us also the fear of Your blessed commandments, so that having curbed all carnal desires, we may lead a spiritual life, both thinking and doing everything to please You. For You, O Christ, our God, are the enlightenment of our souls and bodies; and to You we render glory, together with Your eternal Father, and with Your all holy, life-creating Spirit, now and ever, and forever.

The Office of Religious Education is pleased to share with you a few good news of general interest. They are as follows:

Bible Donation - Mr. Ruben Sanabria of the Knights of Columbus Winter Haven came personally to the Office to deliver their donation of English and Spanish bibles that Ms. Tammy Higgins solicited through Knight Ed Leo. LAETARE SUNDAY

Laetare means to rejoice

The day takes its name from the opening words of today's Mass: “Laetare, Jerusalem”
“Rejoice, O Jerusalem”
 Entrance Antiphon: Isaiah 66:10-11

Mid-Lent Sunday,
Mi-Carême,
Mediana or Rose Sunday

Laetare Sunday is the fourth Sunday in the season of Lent, in the Western Christian liturgical calendar. Traditionally, this Sunday has been a day of celebration, within the austere period of Lent. This Sunday gets its name from the first few words of the traditional Latin entrance for the Mass of the day.

Have a Joyful Laetare Sunday!

What's different?

- Priests may wear rose vestments at Mass
- Flowers may adorn the Altar
- The organ may be played

OCA 2021

The OCA 2021 kick-off got off to a great start. We heard from Bishop John Noonan about all the wonderful things that OCA achieves and makes possible. This year our goal amount is $123,749.00.

Remember, funds from our OCA commitment go to help our Seminarians with their tuition, the Retired Religious for their care, Catholic Schools, on-going Parish Ministerial needs and classes, Safe Environment, Catholic Charities that fund Food Banks and Medical clinics, helping Migrants acclimate to their new surroundings, providing housing and job training to the needy, and our Sister Diocese: San Juan de la Maguana in the Dominican Republic with a brand new Science Lab last year. And, so much more!

We are off to a great start! Let's keep those pledges coming! Saint Ann and its people will always make it happen! Thank you.

ELEGIDOS POR DIOS

En este cuarto domingo de Cuaresma, nuestra comunidad tiene la oportunidad de ser testigo de los escrutinios que se hacen a los candidatos a recibir su iniciación cristiana en la celebración solemne de la pascua. Los escrutinios tienen lugar el 3°, 4° y 5° domingo de Cuaresma y tienen por objeto, conducir a quienes se preparan a los sacramentos, para que reconozcan lo que es débil en sus corazones y fortalezcan lo que es bueno. Así dice el Ritual que “Estos deben ayudar a la conversión total de los elegidos y a profundizar su resolución de mantenerse estrechamente unidos a Cristo y de proseguir con mayor decisión en su esfuerzo por amar a Dios sobre todas las cosas” (RICA n. 141) Este es un proceso constante en nuestra vida cristiana, estamos siempre en camino de conversión y el tiempo de Cuaresma enfatiza, en esta necesaria actitud, mientras peregrinamos hacia el Reino eterno. En esta jornada debemos ser conscientes que la asamblea litúrgica tiene un papel de relevante importancia, ya que es el lugar en donde los elegidos son instruidos en la manera en que los fieles de nuestra Iglesia buscan adecuar su mirada, sus deseos y sus acciones a la voluntad de Dios. La comunidad, que conoce la ardua tarea del testimonio a la que los elegidos se vinculan, ora por ellos, para que también reciban el auxilio de Dios que les permita perseverar y servir los dones que recibirán al profesar su fe.

La Palabra que escuchamos en este día tiene estos signos especiales de conversión que nos permiten fortalecer nuestro propio camino de conversión:

1. Dios que conoce nuestros corazones es quien elige; “El hombre se fija en las apariencias, pero el Señor se fija en los corazones” (I Samuel 16, 7)
2. Llamados a asumir una nueva vida: “ustedes fueron tinieblas, pero ahora, unidos al Señor, son luz” (Efesios 5,8) Reconociendo al Señor, nos abandonamos en sus designios: “Él dijo: Creo, Señor. Y postrándose, lo adoró” (Juan 9,38).

En oración dispongámonos para que el Señor siga fortaleciendo a nuestra comunidad en el don del bautismo y particularmente en esta semana en la que celebraremos la Solemnidad de San José y la consagración de tantas personas que se han preparado en la meditación y la oración, para que gocemos de su gracia y protección.
