ALIVE MINISTRY

We can say that the Gospel for this Sunday has a special mission that Jesus commends to his followers: to preach and to heal. During the Last Supper, the words of Jesus became the perfect consecration and a remarkable moment of the "ordination" for those who had traveled and seen the miracles and good deeds performed by Him. They were good witnesses and excellent helpers, but now the Lord has commanded them to go and do similar things in his name that they have observed. God invites humankind to serve us in His name because He takes humanity seriously. Christ became one of us, flesh.

This call was not easy for his first disciples. They suffered persecution, rejection, imprisonment, and humiliation for the sake of Jesus, but the company in the spirit of Jesus was always with them. Their missionary work did not finish with the martyrdom of the first apostles; instead, their blood was the seed of new men and women called to follow the Lord and to do great deeds in his name because the name of Jesus has the power to show the glory of God in all kinds of circumstances.

So, in effect, Jesus carried out his ministry through the apostles when he sent them out, or we could say that the apostles are an extension of the ministry of Jesus. Just as Jesus asked the apostles to minister to the spiritual needs of the people of his time, God calls fellow humans, priests, to minister to our spiritual needs now.

Today, as a family of God, we remember those good men who were called by God, were ready to follow him and were entrusted by Him to continue with His ministry today. I am talking about our priests, the ones who baptized us or gave Jesus to us for the first time. Those that have been very close to us in moments of difficulties or have received our confession and have given absolution in the name of the One that sent them to be the extension of His mercy and His love. We pray with gratitude and thankfulness for their ministry.

Let us pray this week for all our priests and religious who help us understand God's infinite love for us.

VOCATION GIFT FROM GOD

Servant of Love

Vocations Are Born in and from Prayer

"Behind and before every vocation to the priesthood or to the consecrated life there is always the strong and intense prayer of someone: a grandmother, a grandfather, a mother, a father, a community. This is why Jesus said: 'Pray therefore the Lord of the harvest,' that is, God the Father, 'to send out laborers into His harvest' (Mt 9:38).

Vocations are born in prayer and from prayer; and only through prayer can they persevere and bear fruit."

SPEAKLORD.NET

Prayer for Priests
O Jesus, eternal Priest, keep your priests within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart, where none may touch them.

Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body.

Keep unsullied their lips, daily purpled with your Precious Blood.

Keep pure and unearthy their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of the priesthood.

Let Your holy love surround them and shield them from the world's contagion.

Bless their labors with abundant fruit.

May the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here on earth, and in heaven, their beautiful and everlasting crown. Amen.

SAINT OF THE WEEK: ST. KATERI TEKAKWITHA

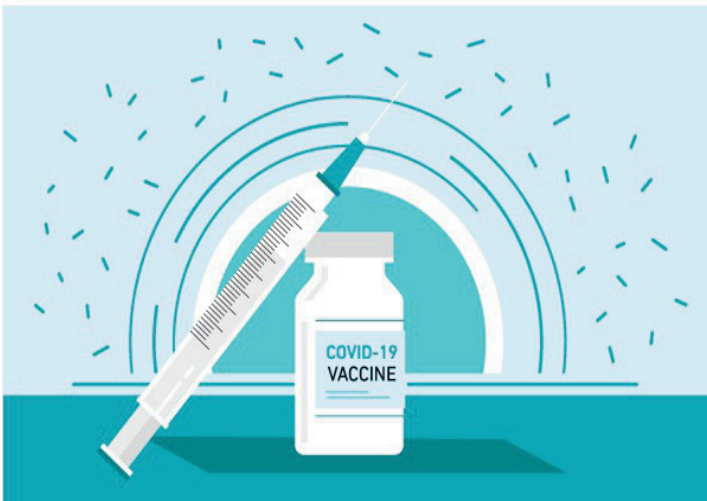

St. Kateri Tekakwitha, Tekakwitha also spelled Tegakwitha or Tegakouita, baptized Catherine Tekakwitha, byname Lily of the Mohawks, (born 1656, probably Ossernenon, New Netherland now Auriesville, [New York, U.S.] —died April 17, 1680, Caughnawaga, Quebec now in [Canada]; canonized October 21, 2012; feast day in the U.S., July 14; feast day in Canada, April 17), the first North American Indian canonized as a saint in the Roman Catholic Church. Tekakwitha was the child of a Mohawk father and a Christianized Algonquin mother. At age four, she was the only member of her family to survive smallpox, which affected her own health. Staying with her anti-Christian uncle, she was deeply impressed at age 11 by the lives and words of three visiting Jesuits, likely the first white Christians she had ever encountered. She began to lead a life inspired by the example of those men. At age 20, she was instructed in religion and baptized Catherine (rendered Kateri in Mohawk speech) by Jacques de Lamberville, Jesuit missionary to the Iroquois Indians.

Harassed, stoned, and threatened with torture in her home village, she fled 200 miles (320 km) to the Christian Indian mission of St. Francis Xavier at Sault Saint-Louis, near Montreal. There she came to be known as the “Lily of the Mohawks” in recognition of her kindness, prayer, faith, and heroic suffering. Accounts of Tekakwitha’s life written by de Lamberville and fellow missionaries contributed significantly to the documentation necessary for her beatification, which began in 1932 and was proclaimed by Pope John Paul II in 1980. In December 2011, after evaluating the testimony of a young boy who claimed that his infection with flesh-eating bacteria disappeared after he prayed for her intercession, Pope Benedict XVI recognized Tekakwitha as a saint. She was canonized the following October.

MINISTERIO VIVO

Podemos decir que el Evangelio para este domingo tiene una misión especial que Jesús encomienda a sus seguidores: predicar y sanar. Durante la Última Cena, las palabras de Jesús se convirtieron en la consagración perfecta y en un momento extraordinario de la "ordenación" para aquellos que habían viajado y visto los milagros y las buenas obras realizadas por Él. Fueron buenos testigos y excelentes ayudantes, pero ahora el Señor les ha ordenado que vayan y hagan cosas similares en su nombre que han observado. Dios invita a la humanidad a que nos sirva en Su nombre porque se toma en serio a la humanidad. Cristo se hizo uno de nosotros, carne.

Esta llamada no fue fácil para sus primeros discípulos. Sufrieron persecución, rechazo, encarcelamiento y humillación por causa de Jesús, pero la compañía en el espíritu de Jesús siempre estuvo con ellos. Su obra misionera no terminó con el martirio de los primeros apóstoles; en cambio, su sangre fue la semilla de nuevos hombres y mujeres llamados a seguir al Señor ya hacer grandes obras en su nombre porque el nombre de Jesús tiene el poder de mostrar la gloria de Dios en todo tipo de circunstancias.

Entonces, en efecto, Jesús llevó a cabo su ministerio a través de los apóstoles cuando los envió, o podríamos decir que los apóstoles son una extensión del ministerio de Jesús. Así como Jesús pidió a los apóstoles que ministraran a las necesidades espirituales de la gente de su tiempo, Dios llama a otros seres humanos, sacerdotes, a ministrar nuestras necesidades espirituales ahora.

Hoy, como familia de Dios, recordamos a aquellos buenos hombres que fueron llamados por Dios, estaban listos para seguirlo y fueron encomendados por Él para continuar con Su ministerio hoy. Me refiero a nuestros sacerdotes, los que nos bautizaron o nos dieron a Jesús por primera vez. Aquellos que han estado muy cerca de nosotros en momentos de dificultad o han recibido nuestra confesión y han dado la absolución en nombre de Aquel que los envió para ser la extensión de Su misericordia y Su amor. Oramos con gratitud y agradecimiento por su ministerio.

Recemos esta semana por todos nuestros sacerdotes y religiosos que nos ayudan a comprender el amor infinito de Dios por nosotros.

Pastor

Oración por todos los Sacerdotes

Señor Jesús, Pastor Supremo del rebaño, te rogamos que por el inmenso amor y misericordia de Tu Sagrado Corazón, atiendas todas las necesidades de tus sacerdotes. Te pedimos que retomes en Tu Corazón todos aquellos sacerdotes que se han alejado de tu camino, que enciendas de nuevo el deseo de santidad en los corazones de aquellos sacerdotes que han caído en la tibieza, y que continúes otorgando a tus sacerdotes fervientes el deseo de una mayor santidad. Unidos a tu Corazón y el Corazón de María, te pedimos que envíes esta petición a Tu Padre celestial en la unidad del Espíritu Santo. Amén.
