OUR STRENGTH IS GOD'S MESSAGE

On this Sunday, we are given the opportunity to consider a founding reality of our faith: God is attentive with his creation and specifically with the human being to whom he allows intelligence so that they can reflect and nurture their experience of faith. We know this based on the evidence of so many people who can bear witness to the efficacy of the Word of God that continues to encourage their sons and daughters on the journey of this life.

The prophet Jeremiah recorded the hope of a people who, forgotten by their leaders, wait for divine justice, and for this reason, he says, "the Lord, our justice" (Jr 23:6). The reality surpasses expectations because God does not show himself as a leader seated on his throne to apply his justice but rather approaches human realities, exercising his authority as a solicitous shepherd of his flock. The people of Israel understood that God's justice brings peace.

This, as the fruit of justice, is given to perfection in the surrender of Jesus, who, knowing the difficulties of human life perfectly, shows in God the abundant source of divine mercy that reconciles us and leads us to true peace. This leads Saint Paul to say, "He is our peace" (Eph 2:14).

To continue his ministry, Jesus himself has chosen disciples sent to continue his work. He teaches them by his example, how they should exercise their ministry in the same way the Father supports him in carrying out his mission. Thus, the disciples also feel the Master, who supports them, indicating the precise moment to shepherd, rest, and pray. The work of Jesus goes far beyond comforting human needs; his mission is to make the Kingdom of God present and reveal the will of the Father.

By inviting the disciples to "come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile" (Mk 6:31), he wants to teach them to assume the signs that they have shown in his teaching. After witnessing the obvious signs of the presence of the Kingdom, it is necessary to reflect on them so that they strengthen the disciples in times of trial. We today must also take time to rekindle inside the constant presence of God, who approaches us, provides us with what we need, and invites us not to remain in the external signs of his mercy, but rather to take them so that they become moments that strengthen our Christian life.

VOCATION GIFT FROM GOD

The priest . . . no matter where he is located, the diocesan priest has to be the sharer of secrets, the carrier of burdens, the fountain of consolation, and the pillar of strength. Solitary, he is called father by thousands; poor, he enriches the lives of thousands; weak, he gives strength to thousands; unimportant, he does things each day whose importance cannot be told in any tongue on earth. He is never too busy to hear another's sorrows; often too busy to realize his own burdens. He is a 24-hour-a-day man. He is called from his dinner; wakened from his sleep; disturbed at his prayers. He is at the beck and call of any of his people. He is the target of God's enemies, the magnet of God's needy. Occasionally, he attracts attention; but usually he works unnoticed and unclaimed while he does the noblest work on earth — keeps Christ in the lives of the people.

LORD OF THE HARVEST,

BLESS young people with the gift of courage to respond to your call. Open their hearts to great ideals, to great things.

INSPIRE all of your disciples to mutual love and giving for vocations blossom in the good soil of faithful people.

INSTILL those in religious life, parish ministries, and families with the confidence and grace to invite others to embrace the bold and noble path of a life consecrated to you.

UNITE us to Jesus through prayer and sacrament, so that we may cooperate with you in building your reign of mercy and truth, of justice and peace. Amen.

— POPE FRANCIS

SAINT OF THE WEEK: ST. WENDELIN OF TRIER

The 7th-century hermit Wendelin is famous for his cures of afflictions of cattle and his patronage of country folk and herdsmen. According to the tradition handed down to us, he was a youth of Scottish origin who, after making a pious pilgrimage to Rome, felt called to a solitary life. He settled in a remote spot in the diocese of Trier, Germany, where he lived in a simple hut.

One day, Wendelin was in the town begging for his bread when a nobleman accosted him. He wanted to know why a healthy young man was begging for bread that could go to the poor. The nobleman offered Wendelin a job on his farm, and the hermit, seeing this as an opportunity to mortify his own will, accepted. From that time, he occupied himself with the castle and the sheep. It is said that he often took his flock very far afield, but miraculously transported them each night.

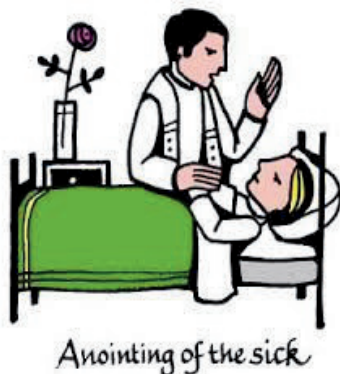

Eventually, Wendelin took his leave from the farm and returned to the hermitage. He established a group of hermits who eventually formed the monastery of Tholey. Upon his death, many miracles were reported at his grave, and a chapel was erected on the spot. In the 14th century, the chapel was rebuilt by the bishop in Trier after Wendelin's intercession ended a deadly plague on cattle.

Father of mercies, through the intercession of Saint Wendelin, help me to do my job with attention and commitment.

WEEKLY REFLECTION OF THE EUCHARIST

"Unless you eat the flesh and drink the blood of the Son of Man, you will not have life in you" (Jn 6:53). We believe in the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist because Jesus has said it and his word is Truth, and the Catholic Church, the body of Christ, faithfully transmits this truth to us. But what is the manner of this presence?

We turn to the words of Jesus. "He who eats my flesh" (Jn 6:56). John invokes the Incarnation by using the Greek word Sarx for flesh. It is the same Greek word used at the beginning of the Gospel, "the Word became flesh and lived among us" (Jn 1:14). The most straightforward way to interpret this, and the one which, we would affirm, has been the preference of the magisterium, is to assert an identity between the earthly presence of Christ 2,000 years ago and the Eucharist in their whole respective existential realities.

The Incarnation, the Word made flesh, is to continue through space and time. The body of Christ is to be concretely, historically, physically, wholly present to men down the ages and across the globe.

POWERFUL PETITION FOR A HOME TO ST. ANN

There is a Catholic tradition for people who are looking for a home.

As we approach the feast of St. Ann, we entrust our petitions through her powerful intercession and protection for our personal needs and intentions.

We encourage families to build a "small toy house" as offerings that children can bring to an altar dedicated to St. Ann that will be located in the parish on July 26.

That is why we share this small prayer so that all those brothers and sisters who are in need of a home or are in the process of buying a house, can find the spiritual strength and assistance of our merciful grandmother.

PRAYER FOR A HOME TO ST. ANN

Good St. Ann, you were especially favored by God to be the mother of the most holy Virgin Mary, the Mother of our Savior and our Mother. By your holy intercession with your most pure daughter and with her divine Son, kindly obtain for us the grace and the favor to obtain a dignified place to live with my family. Help us to understand that my petitions and supplications always happened in the time of God. Give us the strength to perform faithfully our daily duties and the courage we need to persevere in the love of Jesus and Mary in our family. Amen.

I want a house that is not full of luxury but the essentials to live comfortably.

The most important thing that is my property.

I will do everything in my power to make that great dreams come true.

To leave my children in the future a safe roof where they can sleep.

Beloved Santa Ana, today I turn to you so that you can get me my dream home.

I will reward you with this favor with my good deeds.

Helping everyone who needs it in the same way that you have done with me in all this time.

LA PRESENCIA DE DIOS ES NUESTRA FORTALEZA

En este domingo se nos da la oportunidad de considerar una realidad fundante de nuestra fe: Dios es solícito con su creación y específicamente con el ser humano a quien le permite la inteligencia para que pueda reflexionar y alimentar su experiencia de fe, a partir de las evidencias de tantas personas que pueden dar testimonio de la eficacia de la Palabra de Dios que sigue alentando a sus hijos e hijas en el camino de esta vida.

El profeta Jeremías deja consignada la esperanza de un pueblo que olvidado por sus dirigentes espera en la justicia divina y por ello dice “el Señor es nuestra justicia” (Jr 23,6). Las expectativas se ven superadas en la realidad pues Dios para aplicar su justicia no se muestra como un dirigente sentado en su trono, sino que se acerca a las realidades humanas, ejerciendo su autoridad como un pastor solícito de su rebaño. El pueblo de Israel, entendía que la justicia de Dios trae consigo la paz. Esta como fruto de la justicia, se da a perfección en la entrega de Jesús, quien conociendo perfectamente las dificultades de la vida humana, muestra en Dios la abundante fuente de la misericordia divina que nos reconcilia y nos conduce a la paz verdadera. Esto lleva a san Pablo a decir “Él es nuestra paz” (Ef 2,14) conduce a la paz verdadera. Esto lleva a san Pablo a decir “Él es nuestra paz” (Ef 2,14)

Para continuar su ministerio, Jesús mismo ha elegido discípulos enviados a continuar su obra y les enseña con su ejemplo, la manera en que deben ejercer su ministerio, de la misma manera en que Él es sostenido por el Padre en la realización de su misión, así también los discípulos sienten la presencia del Maestro que les sostiene indicándoles el momento preciso para pastorear, para descansar, para orar. La obra de Jesús va mucho más allá de calmar las necesidades humanas, su misión es hacer presente el Reino de Dios y revelar la voluntad del Padre.

Al invitar a los discípulos “vengan conmigo a un lugar solitario, para que descansen un poco” (Mc 6,31), quiere enseñarles a asumir los signos que han evidenciado en su enseñanza. Después de los signos evidentes de la presencia del Reino, es necesario reflexionar en ellos, para que les fortalezcan en los momentos de las pruebas. También hoy tenemos que tomar tiempo para reavivar en el interior la presencia constante de Dios, que se acerca a nosotros proporcionándonos lo que necesitamos e invitándonos a no quedarnos en los signos exteriores de su misericordia, sino más bien tomarlos para que se conviertan en momentos que fortalecen nuestra vida cristiana.

REFLEXIÓN SEMANAL DE LA EUCARISTIA

"Jesús les dijo: «En verdad les digo que si no comen la carne del Hijo del hombre y no beben mi sangre, no tienen vida en ustedes.» (Jn 6, 53). Nosotros los católicos creemos en la presencia real de Jesús en la Eucaristía, porque Jesús lo ha dicho y su palabra es verdad absoluta, y la iglesia católica, a través del Cuerpo de Cristo, fielmente transmite su verdad a nosotros. ¿Pero en qué manera se hace presente?

Primero que todo analicemos las palabras de Jesús "El que come mi carne y bebe mi sangre permanece en mí y yo en él." (Jn 6, 56) Juan invoca la encarnación usando la palabra griega Sarx para referirse a la carne. Esta palabra es la misma usada al principio del evangelio "Y la Palabra se hizo carne, puso su tienda entre nosotros, y hemos visto su Gloria: la Gloria que recibe del Padre el Hijo único, en él todo era don amoroso y verdad." (Jn 1, 14). La manera más correcta de interpretar esto, y en la cual afirmáramos la presencia de Cristo, ha sido la preferida por el magisterio, es acertar una identidad entre la presencia humana y real de Cristo en la tierra durante 2000 años y en la Eucaristía en sus realidades existenciales.

La encarnación, La Palabra hecha carne, continua a través de espacio y tiempo. El Cuerpo de Cristo está concretamente, históricamente, físicamente y completamente presente entre los hombres a través de los tiempos y el mundo.

Señor Jesús, Pastor Supremo del rebaño, te rogamos que por el inmenso amor y misericordia de Tu Sagrado Corazón, atiendas todas las necesidades de tus sacerdotes.

Te pedimos que retomes en Tu Corazón todos aquellos sacerdotes que se han alejado de tu camino, que enciendas de nuevo el deseo de santidad en los corazones de aquellos sacerdotes que han caído en la tibieza, y que continúes otorgando a tus sacerdotes fervientes el deseo de una mayor santidad.

Unidos a tu Corazón y el Corazón de María, te pedimos que envíes esta petición a Tu Padre celestial en la unidad del Espíritu Santo.

Amén.
