WHEN IT HAPPENS, YOU MAY BELIEVE

Time is passing by very quickly, and Easter is leading us to one of the most important events of our faith and our Catholic Church, the coming of the Holy Spirit.

On this 6th Sunday of Easter, the Gospel presents Jesus as he approaches the end of his earthly mission. He is telling his disciples about his new journey to the house of his Father. He gives them peace, promises that he will return, and will send the Holy Spirit, which will help them to understand everything that Jesus taught them.

In the Acts of the Apostles, it is beautiful to read how, after the Resurrection of Jesus and receiving his breath, the Apostles did not make any decisions without consultation and prayer to the Holy Spirit. For example, in their missionary duties, the presence of the Paraclete, who gave them strength and wisdom, helped others understand God's message. They used to say: "The Holy Spirit and we have decided."

In the simplest explanation before his ascension, Christ tells them that he will return to his Father, and they will not be orphans because he promised to send the Advocate to his disciples. The Holy Spirit is the power of Jesus and yet a Person in the Trinity. However, this does not mean that His era was ending because He is always Lord. Rather, it implies that he is not leaving us alone without hope.

So, all we need to do is to remain docile to the counsel of the Holy Spirit. We must pay attention to Him if we are to be able to read the signs of our time and be successful in our mission in today's world.

I have a special love, and I constantly invite the Holy Spirit to come and help me. When I am happy, he will give me the right and authentic joy, or if I am sad, he will give me the strength to know that it is in God in whom I place my hope.

Happy Sunday!

Fr. Alfonso Cely
Pastor

OFFICE OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Congratulations to the children in our Religious Education classes who received Our Lord for the first time during their First Communion on May 21.

I wish to thank their parents for their continued interest and support in their children's faith formation.

I thank our dedicated, talented Catechists, who do not let a stone go unturned in the many ways they present our living Faith to our young. They are living examples of Christ's Disciples.

I would also like to thank the Catechists who are preparing our older students for First Communion and Confirmation in September.

As the present Faith Formation year comes to a close, I look forward to welcoming our new classes in September.

We are still in need of Catechists who are willing to work with our older students.

Parents, please check our Parish bulletins for upcoming meetings in August and September.

Thank you very much!

Rita Morano
Coordinator of Religious Education

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Vocation Prayer

Lord Jesus, Son of the Eternal Father and Mary Immaculate, grant to our young people the generosity necessary to follow Your Call and the courage required to overcome all obstacles to their vocation. Give the parents faith, love, and spirit of sacrifice, which will inspire them to offer their children to God's service and to rejoice whenever one of their children is called to the priesthood and religious life. Let your example and that Your Blessed Mother and St. Joseph encourage both young people and parents, and let Your grace sustain them.

SAINT OF THE WEEK: PHILIP NERI

Philip Neri was a sign of contradiction, combining popularity with piety against the background of a corrupt Rome and a disinterested clergy: the whole post-Renaissance malaise.

At an early age, Philip abandoned the chance to become a businessman, moved to Rome from Florence, and devoted his life and individuality to God. After three years of philosophy and theology studies, he gave up any thought of ordination. The next 13 years were spent in a vocation unusual at the time—that of a layperson actively engaged in prayer and the apostolate.

As the Council of Trent (1545-63) was reforming the Church on a doctrinal level, Philip's appealing personality was winning him friends, from all levels of society, from beggars to cardinals. He rapidly gathered a group of laypersons around himself, won over by his audacious spirituality. Initially, they met as an informal prayer and discussion group and served poor people in Rome.

At the urging of his confessor, Philip was ordained a priest. He soon became an outstanding confessor himself, gifted with the knack of piercing the pretenses and illusions of others, though always in a charitable manner and often with a joke. Philip arranged talks, discussions, and prayers for his penitents in a room above the church. He sometimes led "excursions" to other churches, often with music and a picnic on the way.

Some of Philip's followers became priests and lived together in community. This was the beginning of the Oratory, the religious institute he founded. A feature of their life was a daily afternoon service of four informal talks, with vernacular hymns and prayers. Giovanni Palestrina was one of Philip's followers and composed music for the services. The Oratory was finally approved after suffering through a period of accusations of being an assembly of heretics, where laypersons preached and sang vernacular hymns!

Philip's advice was sought by many of the prominent figures of his day. He is one of the influential figures of the Counter-Reformation, mainly for converting to personal holiness many of the influential people within the Church itself. His characteristic virtues were humility and gaiety.

After spending a day hearing confessions and receiving visitors, Philip Neri suffered a hemorrhage and died on the feast of Corpus Christi in 1595. He was beatified in 1615 and canonized in 1622. Three centuries later, Cardinal John Henry Newman founded the first English-speaking house of the Oratory in London.

Reflection:

Many people wrongly feel that such an attractive and jocular personality as Philip's cannot be combined with an intense spirituality. Philip's life melts our rigid, narrow views of piety. His approach to sanctity was truly catholic, all-embracing, and accompanied by a good laugh. Philip always wanted his followers to become not less but more human through their striving for holiness.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT ST. ANN'S

Good & Blessed Sunday Everyone!

ORDINATION OF OUR FIRST DEACON - JAIRO ROSARIO

We cordially invite all St. Ann Church parishioners to the Ordination of Jairo Rosario to the Order of Diaconate. Jairo is our very first deacon ever in the history of St. Ann Catholic Church. He is also the youngest to be ordained in the Diocese of Orlando. We are super proud of Jairo and hope you can join us on this joyous occasion on June 11, 2022, at 10:00 AM at the Basilica, Mary Queen of the Universe in Orlando.

CUANDO SUCEDA, PUEDES CREER

El tiempo pasa muy rápido y la Semana Santa nos lleva a uno de los eventos más importantes de nuestra fe y de nuestra Iglesia Católica, la venida del Espíritu Santo.

En este sexto domingo de Pascua, el Evangelio presenta a Jesús acercándose al final de su misión terrena. Les está contando a sus discípulos su nuevo viaje a la casa de su Padre. Les da paz, promete que volverá y les enviará el Espíritu Santo, que les ayudará a comprender todo lo que Jesús les enseñó.

En los Hechos de los Apóstoles es hermoso leer cómo, después de la Resurrección de Jesús y de recibir su aliento, los Apóstoles no tomaron ninguna decisión sin consultar y orar al Espíritu Santo. Por ejemplo, en sus deberes misioneros, la presencia del Paráclito, que les dio fuerza y sabiduría, ayudó a otros a comprender el mensaje de Dios. Solían decir: “El Espíritu Santo y nosotros hemos decidido”.

En la explicación más sencilla antes de su ascensión, Cristo les dice que volverá a su Padre, y no quedarán huérfanos porque prometió enviar al Abogado a sus discípulos. El Espíritu Santo es el poder de Jesús y, sin embargo, una Persona en la Trinidad. Sin embargo, esto no significa que Su era estaba terminando porque Él siempre es Señor. Más bien, implica que no nos deja solos sin esperanza.

Entonces, todo lo que necesitamos hacer es permanecer dóciles al consejo del Espíritu Santo. Debemos prestarle atención si queremos ser capaces de leer los signos de nuestro tiempo y tener éxito en nuestra misión en el mundo de hoy.

Tengo un amor especial y constantemente invito al Espíritu Santo a que venga a ayudarme. Cuando estoy feliz, me dará la alegría justa y auténtica, o si estoy triste, me dará la fuerza para saber que es en Dios en quien pongo mi esperanza.

¡Feliz domingo!

Padre Alfonso Cely
Pastor
