

About Bonsai Trees

With Bonsai Enthusiast Marian Lanchman

Images: 8 Billion Trees

'Bonsai' is more than a tree; it is an art form that has fascinated people for centuries. The cultivation of these tiny trees teaches patience, humility, creativity, and mindfulness. Ever wonder how these beauties are grown or why so many people are attracted to them? Marian Lanchman, a bonsai enthusiast, will share the story of her immersion in bonsai gardening and offer advice on selecting, potting, and pruning these intriguing plants. After the presentation, enjoy a stroll around Rockefeller Park Greenhouse's outdoor gardens and its indoor displays.

Saturday, June 10th

11am - 12pm

Rockefeller Park Greenhouse

Admission & Parking are Free

Rockefeller Park Greenhouse | 750 E. 88th Street, Cleveland, OH 44108