This is the begining of the book of the power of evil, I deemed these spells nessacary to begin with because of the way evil computes territory, and I thought maybe these spells would make sufficient ways to lifestyle and readiness to complete sucsess when efforting to clearness.

There may be more installments of parts of this book to come, I imagine that I might write hundreds of spells in this book, along with information about many things that could be understood.

available some magic and powers you could want, and of course when you can donate to this cause, contributions accelerate the cosmos to what is possible to being acheived, and because I don't mean pro bono, I mean to make money (dur!). Nevertheless these abilities are nice to be able to find, so good [uck!
