

the witches calendar is organized to see that the element of the earth in accordance with the universe and cosmos are maximized to enable most power and success for witchcraft, magic or power craft done by sewing through the elements at hand, to achieve different effects and results

the months should be followed with practice and attention to the meaning, the calendar is calibrated to the various changes in a year beginning with the first month Imbolc calculated to Feb 2 due to the eternal lateral flux, from the position of the earth to the sun during revolution, the angle of sun is at external, diameter maximizing light press, causing energy emergence. Feb 2 Imbolc- to know and understand the meaning of things that come present and then announce them to proceed with what they could accomplish. During Imbolc practice by learning, knowing or remembering what things are and proclaim them well, you're preparing things to work good.

The second month Ostara at March 21

because position of the earth in revolution is at Ostara, 2nd nebula in the milky way it is quiet to the up the cosmos allowing maximum hearse (reception), Ostara is the state of everything being known the way as it is. During Ostara, say what things are in order to bring attention to the knowing of them (star is the showing of the thing known) get ready to adding up array, all the tools you craft with (magic and parts, herbs and such)

Beltane is the 3rd month on May 1st, Beltane is seeing sturdy being said. May 1st equinox lateral (spring) is the time in position of the earth for maximum appropriate for growth. During Beltane, use all that you have cultivated, emerge in the spring with renewed power, and realize it is. June 21 Midsummer is the next month, by midsummer energy has expelled and gathered to ominous, and is ready to project. In midsummer put out as many powerful effective feat you can, do forget it is a good time to, hot & evil.

Lammas August 1st, the earth is moving on overall, no problems, no events. Lammas means to go on and on with what is. On Lammas continue to working with what you have made effective before you think of beginning a new thing, correlate the power you have nurtured thus far to what progress.

September 21 is this month Mabon, at this the earth is approaching the later side of the sun gravitational pull is flat out (pore). Mabon is the word for flat out or pore. On Mabon what you have stated or estated is being appreciated, refer to it this month, find all of its capabilities. expect results.

Samhain October 31, fall equinox, in the fall season the sunlight angle is spreading causing less focus,so less light,All hallows eve,when the darkness get another chance.Samhain means the light is leaving. During Samhain look for what could be newly found or what is in time for returning,use these things.they should work more exceptionally.

December 21 is Yule,at this time the light from the angle of the sunshine disperses,causing the light intensity to ease,causing things to be let out.Yule means,let it out.On Yule clear and cleanse the present away from you to the forward,until you see what is ahead,take count of what you have accomplished this year before it passes,then understand what that could impend or benifit you possibly.The year ending will end everything that happened as the sun shone one revolution and the new year will bring fresh another wave of what will come.Do yule,then do what you can.

Practicing this calender will add up the factors,and the culmination of them is omerous,the greatest parts of the power of right to beauty,evil.sucessfully achieving the practice of this calender will bring you power of evil,nice and strong.following this calender while working whatever you do will insure that you becomes much more powerful every year.
