Day 7, 8 and 9 are for Excursions, indulge in any excursion you find interesting. You will do them in the order that the ground guide advises, depending on the group needs:

1. Authentic Stone Town Walking Tour - Most popular (3 hrs)

Let's walk the streets of Stone Town together and customize the tour based on what you're interested in! We'll walk the path of the slave trade and peak at the antiques and souvenirs in the Stone Town markets. We'll make sure no stone is left unturned.

2. Prison Island Tour - Most popular (3-4 hrs)

Just a short trip from Stone Town, you'll visit the white sandy beaches and beautiful coral reefs of Prison Island. You'll be amazed by giant land tortoises which you'll be able to feed.

3. Baraka Aquarium (3 hrs)

Join me on this healing journey to the Baraka Sea turtle rehabilitation aquarium. The Baraka team rescues turtles who have attained wounds from attacks and boating incidents while in the ocean. The turtles are then transported to the aquarium to heal and eventually released back to their ocean homes. During the tour, you will learn all about sea turtles while in their natural habitat. You will get to swim with and feed them on this amazing journey. After nurturing the turtles, we will head to Nungwi Beach for some sun and relaxation! While at the beach, we will dine at a locally owned restaurant and you will taste some of the best seafood and freshly squeezed juice on the Island!

4. Village Cultural Tour (6 hrs)

This tour gives you an insight into the Swahili lifestyle. A full-day tour drives you to the fabrication of Zanzibar wooden curved doors, a drive to Mkokotoni, and the famous fishing village. Here you'll see the fish market and busy fishermen as we discover the history of Tumbatu Island. We'll head to Nungwi village to see wooden dhows, discover the sea turtles and relax.

5. The Rock, Zanzibar (2 hrs)

Dine at the little restaurant, On a rock, in the Ocean. This is a cool way to enjoy Swahili cuisine at the limited pax restaurant by the Beach, if during low tide you walk if during high tide you use a boat

Day 10: After breakfast, Shopping, Beach life, and later Transfer to the Airport for the outbound flight, or flight to Nairobi to connect with your outbound flight
