

KEYS TO BEES' PRESENTATION OUTLINE

The outline below is a general list of presentations offered by Keys To Bees. However, presentations may be customized to suit the host site's needs and/or requests. Youth programs may include a demonstration hive upon request and approval from the host site (May – September). Honey sampling is available with notice (youth programs require guardian consent).

General Adult Presentations/Workshops

- Is Beekeeping for Me?
- Gardening for Bees
- Unveiling the Mysteries of the Honey Bee
- Raising Solitary Bees
- Raising Solitary Bees (includes a Mason Bee house)
- Nectar Preference of the Honey Bee
- To Bee or not to Bee ~ Why Pollinators are Important
- Honey, Honey, Honey ~ all about Honey
- What is a Pollinator?

Youth STEAM Programs/Workshops/Assemblies

- Youth – Unveiling the Mysteries of the Honey Bee (groups of 10-25)
- Youth – Workstations on the honey bee (groups of 26-60)
- All about Bees (groups of 10-25)
- Meet Beatrice the Honey Bee - Assembly Program (auditorium)
- Raising Solitary Bees (family session or 12 years + session) includes Mason Bee house
- Fieldtrips may be arranged to the Keys To Bees Learning Center
- Youth - What is a Pollinator?

Beekeeper (Honey Bee) Specific

- Beekeeping 101 – 5-week series
- Beekeeping Experience ~ What should I know?
- Private mentorship
- Workshops conducted throughout the season

Business and Organization Workshops

- HoneyBee Concept ~ Communication as seen through the lens of the honey bee
- HoneyBee Concept ~ Teamwork as seen through the lens of the honey bee
- Honey Bee Basics