K8 & THE KRUSHERS

BIOGRAPHY

Founded in 2021, K8 & The Krushers is a dynamic modern rock band that stands out in the music scene. Led by 12-year-old K8 (Kate) wielding a 5-string bass, the band showcases her powerful metal screams. Joining her is her 10-year-old brother Fuzz, on drums and backing vocals, and 14-year-old Derek, whose technical guitar skills elevate their sound.

In 2024, K8 & The Krushers performed their first international show in the Toronto area and in the previous year they captivated audiences in New York City. They have made a mark in their local Austin scene playing at venues such as Come and Take It Live, The Far Out Lounge, and The Water Tank. The band has shared the stage with bands many bands including Pissing Razors, Salem's Childe, and Godhand.

In 2024, they began releasing original material and their first official music video. They engage audiences with performances lasting up to three hours and are expanding their acoustic repertoire.

K8's music videos for O'Keefe Music Foundation (OMF) have gained significant traction, with one featuring K8 and Fuzz surpassing 1 million views on Facebook. This Pantera cover video received praise from the band itself. K8 has been a regular contributor to OMF since 2020, earning recognition from media outlets such as Revolver Magazine, Loudwire, The Pit, and Metal-Sucks.net. Her independent collaborations with international artists like Yoyoka, Petch, and Lotte Claus have also attracted considerable attention with a combined viewership exceeding 1 million.

With a unique blend of speed, technique, and passion, Derek the guitarist, stands out in the metal music scene. He draws inspiration from iconic guitarists like Randy Rhoads, Jack Simmons, and "Dimebag" Darrell Abbott.

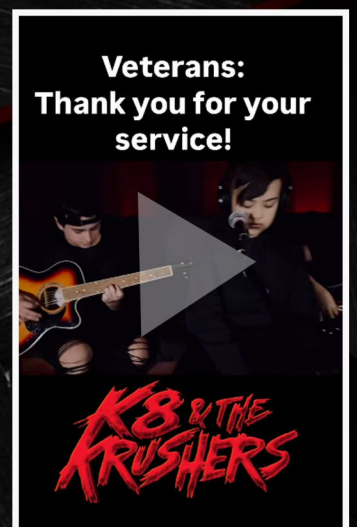

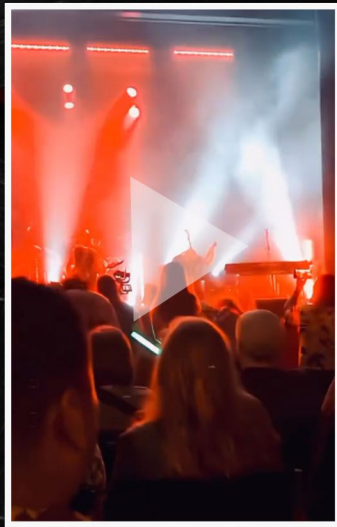

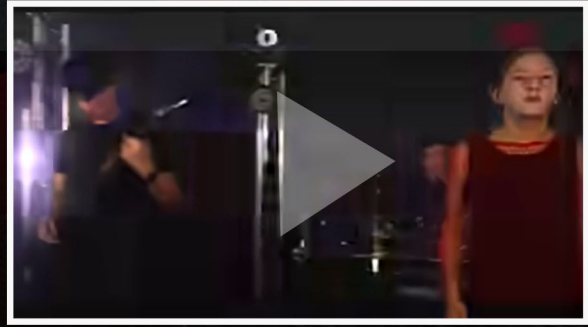

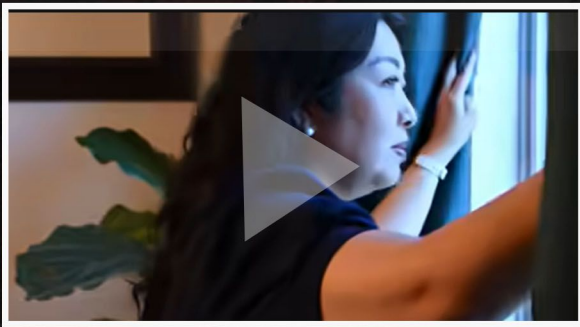

Derek's talent has been featured in multiple OMF videos. Studying under Monte Pittman, who is known for his work with Madonna, has given Derek a unique perspective and great development on music. Derek also writes and produces metal-core music that showcases his creativity and ability to connect with listeners on a deep level.

Fuzz, the drummer, was selected to performing in OMF videos at age 6, showing his early talent and dedication. Fuzz is also an accomplished bass guitar player. Fuzz and K8 are also members of the Grammy award-winning National Children's Chorus, with upcoming performances scheduled at Carnegie Hall and the Sydney Opera House in 2025.
