AUGUSTO MORELLI

Gli alberi sono gli unici esseri viventi capaci di scrivere, scolpire e incidere il cielo.

L'acqua è alla base di tutto ciò che vive, esiste e respira su questo pianeta.

I “Mindsapes” sono stati della mente, un ricordo, una fuga, un luogo che ti fa sentire inesorabilmente perso e al sicuro allo stesso tempo.

Sono spazi alieni e sconosciuti che, in qualche modo, ci ricordano casa. Sono porte aperte su altre dimensioni o, semplicemente, lucidi e piccoli sogni dimenticati sul davanzale della nostra coscienza.

Trees are the only living beings capable of writing, sculpting and engraving the sky.

Water is the foundation of everything that lives, exists and breathes on this planet.

Mindsapes are states of the mind, a memory, an escape, a place that makes you feel inexorably lost and safe at the same time.

They are alien and unknown spaces that somehow remind us of home. They are doors open to other dimensions or, simply, lucid and small dreams forgotten on the windowsill of our conscience.
