Supporting Your Child's Potential

Every child deserves to be understood, supported, and set up for success.

Early Support ♥ Better Communication ♥ Brighter Futures

My Services Include:

Speech and Language Screenings

Identify communication strengths and areas of need.

Autism Screenings

Look for early signs and help you get the right answers and next steps.

Educational Consultant

Support with learning needs, academic planning, and school-based services.

Parent Support

Guidance and encouragement as you navigate seeking appropriate services for your child.

Providing & Pointing to the Resources

Help families find and connect with the right resources, programs, and services in your community — so your child can get the support they need, when they need it.

With 39 Years of Experience as a school-based and private practice based Speech Pathologist and a previous Special Education Director.

This extensive background provides a deep understanding of communication, academic, and special education needs — and how to navigate the systems and resources to help your child thrive.

Service Focus:

Helping parents understand how to improve early communication skills — with practical strategies, encouragement, and hands-on support.

Private Pay Fee

No insurance involved.
