

JON RENAU | EASIHAIIR

January 1, 2019

Dear Valued Partner,

As you know, consistent pricing of Jon Renau products by our e-commerce sites is essential to your business and ours. We appreciate the fact that you have chosen to carry our products and would like to take this time to clarify our pricing model for the distribution of our products via all internet-based shopping sites.

Attached for your review and implementation is a detailed listing of our wholesale price, suggested retail and suggested internet retail for e-commerce sites. Our suggested internet retail price for e-commerce is up to a 15% discount from our standard suggested retail price.

As your business partner, we choose not to participate in any online coupons and sales greater than ten calendar days per month, not exceeding 30% discount from our suggested internet retail. To be fair and consistent to all our clients we request notification a minimum of 24 hours in advance with the description and duration of the online coupon/sale (i.e., 15% off all orders from February 13th through 15th).

Please review our price list and return a completed copy of this agreement along with the completed Jon Renau image agreement.

We welcome any comments, questions, and suggestions you may want to send our way. We look forward to our continued business relationship and wish you the very best in the year ahead.
