HAPPY NEW YEAR FROM FERRON FAMILY FARMS!

As we step into 2025, we want to sincerely thank everyone who supported us throughout 2024. This past year has been one of incredible growth, meaningful connections, and a strengthened sense of community. From the success of our naturally raised meat products to the joy of meeting many of you at our events, farm shop, and during deliveries and pickups, your support has truly meant the world to us.

We're excited to see what 2025 has in store and look forward to achieving, celebrating, and creating amazing memories with you. Here's to a prosperous and memorable year ahead! Together, we're committed to providing healthy, locally sourced, and culturally diverse meat options, empowering you to enjoy delicious meals with confidence and pride in every bite.

We can't wait to welcome you back to the farm this year. See you soon!

CELEBRATING BLACK HISTORY FEBRUARY 2025

This February, Ferron Family Farms is honoring Black History Month with exciting initiatives:

- Winter Food Box: Enjoy our Black History Month Farm Box featuring goat meat, oxtail, and soul-food staples, plus recipe cards sharing their cultural significance.
- Chef Partnership: Coming soon—cooking classes and meal kits with local Black chefs celebrating traditional dishes, online.
- Ancestral Spotlight: Follow us online for stories and photos honoring the legacy of Black farmers in Canada.

Stay tuned for updates and celebrate Black history with us— one meal, one story, and one connection at a time!

DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY - ART GALLERY Ferron Family Farms in Oluseye's "By Faith and Grit"

We are deeply honored to be part of "By Faith and Grit", a solo exhibition by Nigerian-Canadian artist Oluseye Ogunlesi, opening February 6, 2025, at the Dalhousie Art Gallery. Curated by Pamela Edmonds, this moving showcase highlights the resilience of Black communities, inspired by North Preston's powerful slogan: "We've come this far by faith."

Join us for the opening from 6:00–9:00 PM, with remarks at 6:30 PM. The event also features Down Home: Portraits of Resilience and Theaster Gates' Billy Sings Amazing Grace. Celebrate art, culture, and community with us this February. Having your local farmers showcased in such a monumental exhibit is truly humbling!

Ferron Family Farms Open Farm Day 2025!

Mark your calendars for the most exciting Open Farm community event of the year! Ferron Family Farms Open Farm Day is back and bigger than ever. Last year, we had a live band, an incredible array of vendors, obstacle courses, bouncy castles, a science booth, flower potting, face painting, petting zoo, free giveaways, prizes, and treats for the whole family—and this year promises to be even more amazing!

Join us as we celebrate culture, agriculture, and the vibrant community that makes it all possible. Stay tuned for the official date and get ready to make unforgettable memories with us.

Calling All Vendors, Volunteers, and Sponsors!

We're inviting vendors to showcase their amazing products, volunteers to join our team, and businesses and sponsors to partner with us to create an event that truly shines. Let's make this Open Farm Day an unforgettable celebration of community and connection.

Contact Karen for details or to get involved!

Warm regards,
The Ferron Family Farms Team
